Joyful News

NOVEMBER 27, 2016 • 1ST SUNDY OF ADVENT

A few weeks ago, I attended the priest/ seminarian dinner at Sacred Heart Seminary. I was invited by our seminarian, Derik Peterman and Msgr. Todd Lajiness, Rector of the Seminary. It was a good evening, and a chance to get to know Derik better. I had met him a few times before this, and spoken with him briefly.

We, at St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy, are very blessed to have our own homegrown seminarian. I can hardly take any credit for this since I have only been here a few months, but surely some credit goes to the priests in the parish in past years that have helped to influence Derik. Kudos to Derik's family as well. Most vocations begin in the family.

One of the reasons that our parish was formed after the closing and merger of the three former parishes is the small number of priests. Definitely there were other reasons as well. We often pray for priestly vocations. To be honest, though, prayers aren't always enough. We need to be proactive. The Archbishop can't look into his calendar and decide, "Gee, tomorrow I think I'll go to the seminarian store and get some more for the Archdiocese." (The same thing for priests). Seminarians come from families and parishes where their vocations are welcomed and nurtured.

Each of you needs to ask yourself what you have done to promote priestly vocations. Have you ever asked the young men you know – your sons or grandsons, nephews, neighborhood young men – in a positive way if they have ever thought of being a priest? The example of happy, positive priests in parishes also helps. I love being a priest. If the young men in your life hear you speak positively about priests, it may help them consider a priestly vocation. If, instead, the young men around you don't even come to church, if they don't experience their own families live out their faith, how can you expect them to even consider a priestly vocation. I am doing as much as I can to promote vocations. The responsibility is yours.

Fr. Ken

December 7
7:00pm

After a short prayer service, several priests will help us celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. All are encouraged to use this opportunity of prayer, reflection, and penance as a part of the journey towards and preparation for Christmas. As you prepare for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, spend time in prayerful reflection with an examination of conscience, a tool to help recall sins and personal areas in need of spiritual growth.

Parish Mission Statement

Our Parish Family, under the influence of the Gospel, strives to be bold and fearless disciples of Jesus Christ. We witness to our Catholic faith by living the Eucharist. We are the hands and feet of Christ in our service and in our joyful proclamation of the goodness of God.

Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Thursday, December 8

Holy Day of Obligation

Mass 8:30am and 7:00pm

IN FORMATION

Regular sessions for the most part this Monday. Our Catechists in Years 3-8 will remotely prepare our children to celebrate the sacrament of Reconciliation next Monday in a communal celebration with individual confession. It will be a valuable review of this under-used sacrament. Just a reminder that if you have children who need to prepare I would to know about it NOW so I can order age-appropriate materials for next year.

Advent materials There might be some materials still available for personal and family use. Inquire in the Faith Formation Office.

Breakfast in Bethlehem Hopefully everyone is aware of this wonderful event coming up on Dec. 10. I am selling meal tickets for $3.00. The Pageant is free to everyone.

Emails Recently I experienced a major snafu and lost my email groups. If you would like to be added to my St. Mary Parish group just email me with that fact and I will attempt to restore the group. No guarantees.

Sunday Missals I am composing this way before the start of Advent. I MAY still have a 2017 missal available. Ask if you are interested. I had to order additional missals due to their increased popularity.

The Bottom Line Isn't it funny how those irritating things your kids did seem so adorable when your grandchildren do them?

Sr. Gemma Legel, OSF

We ask that if you do choose a tag, that you bring back your unwrapped donation to the gathering space in the back of the church or to the parish office. We ask that you have your donated items in by Monday, December 12th. Thank you for your continued support.

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

Over the last two months several young adults in our parish community attended a Praise & Worship evening. One was held at Ss .Cyril and Methodius in Sterling Heights on a Friday evening and another at Our Lady of Good Council in Plymouth on a Sunday evening. Both evenings involved very powerful praise and worship music along with Adoration and a short themed talk or reflection by a priest. Both events were amazing and spiritually uplifting. Some people may have never experienced praise and worship in this manner before. If you have not we encourage you to try it just once. It was amazing to see the hundreds of people that attended of all ages. We would like to invite other young adults to join us at the next Praise and Worship evening on Sunday, December 11 from 7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. at Our Lady of Good Counsel in Plymouth. It is a wonderful way to slow down from our day to day hectic lives, be in the presence of Jesus, and praise His Holy Name. Please consider joining us. All are Welcome!
