Joyful News

FEBRUARY 5, 2017 • 4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

World Day for Consecrated Life

"The discernment of a vocation is above all the fruit of an intimate dialogue between the Lord and his disciples. Young people, if they know how to pray, can be trusted to know what to do with God's call."

— Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life. We give special thanks to our own Sr. Gemma on this special day. May she experience the support of our parish family at St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy as she continues to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of her vocation.

Twenty nine years ago, during his acceptance speech at the Republican National Convention, George HW Bush called for a kinder, gentler nation. Although I may or may not have been a supporter of Mr. Bush, those words have always stuck with and I have tried to make them almost a motto for my life, my words and my actions.

Now, nearly three decades later, I think that this is even more necessary for our lives, not only in our nation (I am not here to write anything political) but in our daily lives, and even in our church. We need to be kinder to one another, we must be gentler in our words, actions and attitudes.

Perhaps when I was younger, I might have been bolder, fiercer in pushing my beliefs around; to be honest, I don't remember. Perhaps it is because of my life in Japan, where such aggressive attitudes are unacceptable, I have long ago come to realize that fighting with kindness is much more effective than returning with aggressive responses. I am not talking about political rallies and protests; I am speaking about our life, in our families, neighborhoods and church. There are groups and individuals who rarely have a nice thing to say, or a nice way of putting things. I am not a fan of the "in your face" mentality. Being kinder and gentler is easy on your stress level and blood pressure as well. In the Beatitudes, which we read during the Gospel last weekend, Jesus tells us, "Blessed are the peacemakers" and "Blessed are the meek". In a few weeks, we will hear the passage where Jesus says: "You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you."

Strong armed tactics. Attitudes or self-righteousness and superiority. Words which cut down others, even those with whom we disagree. None of this should have a place in our lives. I am not speaking of warm, cozy and fuzzy feelings. We need not be running around hugging all the time; nor do we need to be sentimental, with tears welling up in our eyes. I mean, rather, a mature attitude of treating all people with respect. Of watching our words and actions carefully, rather than quoting the First Amendment to support the fact that. "I am free to say whatever I want...or however I want to."

May we all strive to become kinder and gentler.

Fr. Ken

IN FORMATION

Children's Faith Formation meets three times this month—Feb. 6, 13, and 27. We are “OFF” for Presidents’ Day which is also winter break for some districts. We are sticking to our calendar established during the summer.

Coming Up in this short month are: Catechist Formation at St. Mel’s on the 9th, Grace Before Meals with Fr. Leo Patalinghug on the 22nd at St. Genevieve-St. Maurice (tickets are selling out fast), Sign Ups for Living the Eucharist, First-Year Confirmation Candidate Retreat here on Sat. Feb. 25. Liturgy of the Word with Children will be celebrated on the first and last Sundays this month at the Noon Mass.

Lent begins on March 1. We will prepare the kids and give them age-appropriate things to use at home to observe Lent. Faith Formation Families will also host a Simple Soup and Bread on Friday, March 10. Everyone is invited to the Stations of the Cross for, with, and by young people at 7pm.

Emails If you would like to be added to a group email to learn of happenings in the parish via email just send me one stating that. I promise not to share it.

The Bottom Line More “Ponderisms” The difference between a rut and a grave is the length and depth. Health nuts are going to feel really stupid one day, lying in hospitals dying of nothing. When I feel blue, I start breathing again.

Sr. Gemma Legel, OSF

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

On the weekend of February 11th and 12th, we will be recognizing all married couples at the weekend Masses. If you have been married for 1 year or 101 years join us as we celebrate your marriage and continue to pray for you as you continue in your vocation of marriage.

PALM BRANCHES

The Church's observance of Ash Wednesday will be celebrated this year on Wednesday, March 1.

The ashes we receive on this day are from the burned palm branches blessed and received last year on Palm Sunday. A box is available in our gathering area for you to deposit your old palm branches by Monday, February 20th. Thank you

Are You Ready to Grow Closer to God?

Joyful Women News...

Our next meeting is Wednesday, February 15th at 7pm in our small social hall. Our hostesses for that meeting will be the members of Mary, Queen of Angels Circle. This meeting is open to all ladies in our Parish Family.

Circle? What do you mean when you say Circle? Well, in a nutshell, our Joyful Women's group consists of six individual Circle groups that meet once a month prior to our main General Meeting. They are:

St. Monica — Clare Masak chairperson, meets first Monday of the month at 7pm at a member's home.

Our Lady of Lourdes — Rose Rodriguez/Pat Russo co-chairperson meets the first Monday at 7pm at a member's home.

Our Lady of Medjugorje — Margaret Blackwood, chairperson meets first Tuesday of month at 6:30pm in small social hall.

St. Joseph-Anne — Eunice Austin chairperson, meets first Wednesday at 7pm in small social hall

Mary, Queen of Angels — Leslie Johnston, chairperson meets 2nd Thursday at 7pm at Leslie's home.

St. Margaret Mary — Judy Kuzia, chairperson meets 2nd Monday at Noon in Parish Center Building.

The Circles provide a way for members to discuss proposals and business from the general meetings more thoroughly and if a member misses a General Meeting, attending the Circle meeting will keep them up to date.

All women of our Parish are welcome to attend our General Meetings or a Circle meeting at any time.

For further information, attend the next General Meeting on February 15th or attend a Circle meeting.

Call the Parish Office regarding General Meetings and for contact numbers of the Circle Chairpersons.

February Yellow Offertory Envelope

The yellow envelope found in your monthly packet of envelopes mailed to your home is earmarked for: Support the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. The fall of communism in Central and Eastern Europe in 1989 gave the Catholic Church the freedom to worship openly once again, but much of the infrastructure of the Church was gone. This created great challenges and still presents many complications for the Church today as she supports the spiritual lives of those who live in this region. Your support of this collection is strengthening the life of the Church and building the future for those who live there.

Please be as generous as you can in the collection this year. Additional envelopes can be found in the Gathering Space or at the Parish Office. More information about this Collection and the projects it supports can be found at www.usccb.org/ccce
