Joyful News

MAY 21, 2017 • 6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Last weekend, May 13, the 100th anniversary of the first apparition of Mary in Fatima, Portugal occurred. Pope Francis went to Portugal to attend the ceremonies and to canonize two of the young children whom the Blessed Virgin appeared to 100 years ago: Francisco and Jacinta Marto. They both died within a couple of years after the apparitions, at the ages of 10 (Francisco) and 9 (Jacinta), from influenza. The third child, Lucia Santos, later entered the convent and lived until 2005, when she died just short of her 98th birthday.

Over the years, I had always thought that the apparitions in Fatima had become, unfortunately, too sensationalized; there are “secrets” that the Virgin Mary gave to the young children. The thought of secrets appeals to the “dark” side of some people. After the rise of Communism, the world was called to pray for the “conversion of Russia”; to pray for an end to Communism, because it did not believe in a God, was not a bad thing, but the prayers often used referred to the common Russian people as “enemies”, “cohorts of Satan” and “evil”. In fact, as in most Eastern European countries where Communism was present, the common folk never lost their Christian faith and often suffered on account of it. There was a song made famous during the 1980’s called “Russians”. One line states, “we have the same biology....The Russians love their children too”.

As he canonized Jacinta and Francisco, Pope Francis reminds us that we must all have the heart of a child. Loving. Trusting. This is not the first time that I have written this in the past few months. We are always called to go the childlike faith, as the two young shepherds had. Childlike, not childish. Too often I fear that our behavior becomes more self-indulgent, centered on ourselves and not on our Lord. We have a heavenly Mother. She is the Cause of Our Joy. Clinging to her like children, we live in the hope that rests on Jesus.

The Bottom Line A nun who worked for the Visiting Angels was out making her rounds when she ran out of gas. Luckily she was less than block from a gas station. Realizing she didn't have a gas can, she looked through her trunk for something that would hold enough gas to get her back to the station to fill up. All she could find was a bedpan she was delivering to one of her patients. The nun carried the bedpan to the station, filled it with gas, walked carefully back to her car, and was pouring the gas into the tank when a man walked by. "Now that's what I call faith!" the man said.

States can DEFUND PP!!

VICTORY! President Donald Trump signed into law on April 13th a bill to overturn a rule President Barack Obama put in place preventing states from defunding the Planned Parenthood (PP) abortion business. The rule from the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) prevented states from blocking Title X funding to abortion companies like PP. NOW, individual states can defund PP—taxpayer money should never be funneled to places performing abortions. In Michigan, SB 162 is currently moving through the legislation process to permanently DEFUND PP in Michigan! LIFE is truly winning!
