Joyful News

OCTOBER 8, 2017 • 27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When I was growing up, I belonged to the Boys Scouts for a couple of years. I didn't really want to join, but my best friend did so I followed along. It only lasted a year or two, at most. One of the things that I remember, and I'm sure most of you know as well, is the Scouts' motto: "Be prepared". It's a motto not only for the Scouts, but it should be for all of us.

Throughout our lives, we need to prepare ourselves.

In the Gospels, Jesus tells us to "Be prepared. You do not know the day nor the hour that the Lord is coming". Stern words, perhaps, but a good reminder.

I like to think about preparing for Mass. The last ten or fifteen minutes before Mass, I like to prepare, to get into, what I call, "Mass mode". Get ready to celebrate the mystery of Christ's sacrifice, remember the Scripture readings that I will hear and proclaim, and prepare myself to be in touch with God. Be prepared.

Before Mass, for the last 10 or 15 minutes before it begins, you will notice our music director, Steve Reyes, playing music softly. He too, is trying to prepare himself for the Mass. He is also trying to set an atmosphere in Church, so that all of us are preparing ourselves. A few months ago, I wrote about the importance of a silent atmosphere in Church, especially before Mass. Many, many of you wrote to me in response, thanking me for the article. This is the time we are getting ready to be most united with Christ. Although you may want to greet a friend, in a quiet voice, remember the reason that you are there. I hope no one of you comes to church merely to see his/her friends. We come to be close to God. Be prepared.

Those last minutes before Mass are also vital to the lectors and commentators. You should be spending the time checking over the passage from the Word of God that you are about to proclaim to the assembly, for them to hear from your mouth the Word of God. What an awesome responsibility and privilege. Commentators, likewise, should be preparing the words that they have to announce to the Assembly; check on the pronunciation of names! No one likes to have his or her name mispronounced or worse yet, massacred, particularly at Church. The commentator is the voice of the Church for that particular Mass. Be prepared.

We humans are people that are easily distracted. Let's not let our voices or our actions distract others as they are trying to prepare to hear the Word of God and receive the Body and Blood of Christ. Be prepared.

Fr. Ken

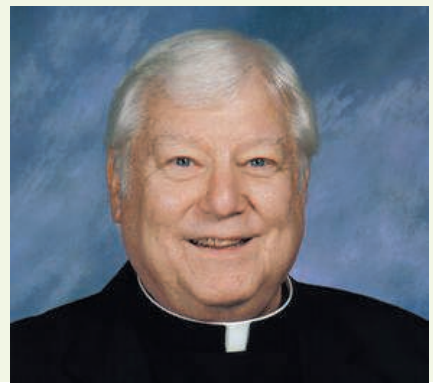

Monsignor Russell E. Kohler

This weekend is special for your Parish Knights of Columbus Council. Over the last year or so we have been known loosely as the Westland Knights. This weekend at our Sunday Noon Mass we celebrate the official naming of our Council in honor of a great man and local Priest who passed in March of 2016. Going forward, we will be known as the "Monsignor Russell E. Kohler" Council. Before Msgr. Russ passed away, he was the Pastor of Most Holy Trinity in Corktown as well as St Anne de Detroit. He was involved in so many Ministries it would be hard to list them all adequately.

We thank his family present today at Mass and Archbishop Vigneron for allowing us to celebrate this great Priest and to honor him as our Council Patron.

Vivat Jesus Msgr. Russ!

Confirmation Next Sunday at the Noon Mass our Candidates for Confirmation will make a commitment to prepare well to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation next April. In the presence of their parents, sponsors, siblings, and parishioners, our Pastor, Fr. Ken will receive their written intentions. We pray they all persevere!

Big Sale Mark your calendar and plan to visit the big sale in the small hall after all the Masses on Oct. 21-22. All kinds of items will be available for a small cost. All proceeds will go to the support of Missionaries. Thank you in advance!

The Bottom Line I believe that Christ had a tremendous sense of humor. Imagine the twinkle in His eye when He asked the Samaritan woman for a drink of water, the smile with which He invited Himself to Zacchaeus's house for dinner, and the manner in which He handled Peter's eagerness to build "tent city" at the Transfiguration.

Sr. Gemma Legel, OSF

A brief summary of the Parish Pastoral Council Meeting, Sept. 11, 2017.

- 6 of the 11 members on this year's PPC are new to the Council. Father Ken spent some time bringing them up to date on what is going on in the parish, on issues that we have been dealing with in the past, and the financial situation. There was time for questions and clarifications.
- Each member of the PPC introduced himself/herself.
- A fundraising event was held in August, after the parish obtained the proper license from the State.
- The parish Mission will be held March 11-13, 2018, during Lent. The parish was lucky to have obtained a well known Catholic speaker and musician, Steve Angrisano.
- There were updates made on office equipment (a few computers) and digital billboards that the parish is obtaining. Additional parish and building needs: Church and office area boilers, replacement of driveways and eventually the parking lot, church doors.
- The work of the Council and the commissions and committees took place. Each member is asked to consider joining one of the commissions.
- The pastoral team is working to get all organizations, committees and groups on the same wavelength. A presentation will be made at the next PPC regarding what we can do to make our parish attractive and active as we move forward. Some ideas were brought forward for various activities in the parish. Additional contributions will be asked for as we move forward.
- The chairperson, vice-chairperson and secretary will be chosen at the next meeting, October 9, 2017.

Jesus and the Four Gospels are well known to most Christians. In this course we will go beyond this basic understanding and explore the Jewish setting of Jesus' life and ministry, what Jesus said about himself and what his message was (no it is not about love)! We will also discuss why the New Testament came into existence and how the message of Jesus leads to his crucifixion from the perspectives of Jesus, the Jews, and the Romans. We will also discuss what Christian values are and how Christians should live their lives.

OCTOBER CHRISTIAN SERVICE PROJECT

It's that time of the year again! Halloween is just around the corner and Sacred Heart Major Seminary needs OUR help.

Each year the seminary community opens their doors and their hearts to over 2000 children from the surrounding Detroit neighborhood so that the kids can have a fun and safe place to play games and trick-or-treat. But they need our help again to make this year a success! They are asking for donations of Halloween candy that they will distribute to the MANY children who show up at their doors.

If you are willing to participate in this important ministry by donating bags of candy, please bring them to our Gathering Space in church or drop them off at our Parish Office during regular business hours by Monday, October 23rd. We will make sure all candy is delivered to the seminarians to distribute at their annual Children's Halloween party.
