Joyful News

OCTOBER 29, 2017 • 29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

HOLY DAY
MASS SCHEDULE
WED., NOVEMBER 1
NOON AND 7:00PM

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

LORD GOD, Thank you for our priests, past and present. We especially thank you for our Pastor, Fr. Ken in his ministry to the people of St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy, that we may affirm, support, and celebrate his gift of service to us.

We know our Priests, Fr. Ken and Fr. Joe, do not seek or desire recognition for the Priesthood you have chosen them for, yet it is to You we wish to give thanks for calling them to guide and nourish our parish community. We ask You to bless them, for providing the Eucharist for us – our spiritual sustenance – and for proclaiming “The Good News” with conviction and enthusiasm in our parish.

GRANT them the joy experienced on their Ordination Day, all the days of their lives and look kindly upon them as they strive to do Your will. Bless them abundantly, care for them tenderly and above all, let them feel the love and appreciation we have for them. We ask this through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

MEMORIAL MASS

Sunday, November 5 at 10 a.m.

*Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there; I do not sleep
I am the smile of sunshine in the day;
I am the inner voice that leads the way.
I am the memories that calm the night;
I am the spirit that continues the fight.*

November is a time to reflect on the past year and remember our friends and family who have gone to their eternal rest. Our tradition is to have a Memorial Mass as part of this remembrance. At this Mass, all the crosses that were placed on our wall of Remembrance, will be returned to families to take home.

Bulletin Articles due by 9 am on Monday (5 days prior to publication). Submitted bulletin content is subject to approval.

Last year, I published in the Bulletin some regulations for Ministers of the Eucharist, set forth by the Archdiocese of Detroit. I am going to reprint them again, as a reminder to ALL of us concerning respect for the Body and Blood of Christ. Unfortunately, it continues to happen that some people are carrying the Eucharist around with them for hours or days as they go shopping, or out to eat, or wherever, before taking them to the believers who will receive the Body of Christ. Some people receive the Eucharist at Mass on Saturday evening, and wait until the next morning to distribute. Unless you have an officially dedicated chapel and tabernacle in your home, and I doubt if anyone does, this is WRONG. This is a lack of respect for the Body of Jesus. We must give the utmost respect for the Eucharist. If you cannot follow these regulations, you will be asked to step down from that position. It is a privilege, not a right, to take the Body of Christ to others.

Here are some regulations from the Archdiocese of Detroit concerning Extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist to the homebound, nursing homes, etc.

Ideally, the ministers to the sick and sent forth from the Sunday liturgy (or weekday liturgy) so that those who are cannot be physically present at the community celebration may be united in the Lord with the community. The ministers should receive the hosts for distribution to the sick in a pyx, at the time that they themselves receive Holy Communion. They should not wait until after Mass to place the hosts in the pyx. Before the ministers receive Communion themselves, they should hold out the open pyx, say how many hosts are needed, and wait until that many are placed in the pyx. Then they should close the pyx and receive Communion themselves.

The ministers should go directly to the homebound. It is not appropriate to go to breakfast, shopping or elsewhere along the way.

The Blessed Sacrament may NOT be kept in one's private possession, either on one's person or in a fixed place, except when in transit to bring Communion to someone.

The extraordinary minister should consume unused hosts. Should there be a large number of hosts remaining, they should be returned promptly to the church and placed in the tabernacle. Care should be taken at the next visit to limit the amount of Eucharist being brought.

After the visit, the pyx should be purified. Place some water in the pyx, drink it then wash and dry the pyx.

Extraordinary ministers who take Holy Communion to individual's homes or to institutions must be registered members of St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy and must have attend the training session provided by the parish. "I've been doing this for many years" is not an excuse for not attending. According to Canon Law, "Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are appointed to a particular parish or institution only and may not minister outside or beyond the parameters of their appointment."

The Body of Christ is the most precious gift we have received from God. Let's make sure we treat it that way.

Fr. Ken

Part of the goal of Christian Service at our parish is to address the Corporal Works of Mercy in our community. These works include: to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, give alms to the poor, shelter the homeless, visit the sick, visit the imprisoned, and lastly to bury the dead. Most of us start this list very well. If you are anything like me, you start to peter-out somewhere after the fourth or the fifth.

As we approach All Saints' Day, I would challenge everyone in our pews to specifically work on "bury the dead" this year. And no, I don't want everyone to go shopping for a new shovel on Halloween. The easiest thing would be to attend our All Saints' Day Mass (which is a holy day of obligation anyway) and to truly pray for all of those brothers and sisters that we have lost. Second, and this one may be a little more painful for some of us, step out of your comfort zone and attend a funeral of a parishioner that you didn't know. You don't have to go to the cemetery or luncheon. Just go to the funeral, and pray with the family, and for the deceased. We are all brothers and sisters in Christ, and it is good to support each other.

Paul

IN FORMATION

Sunday Missals have arrived. They are available for pick up. Cost for one adult will be $3.00 and children's is $6.00.

Monday night traffic on our parking lot has improved a little. The message to be careful and to follow the traffic pattern is getting heard gradually. Thank you for your cooperation and care. We are VERY grateful to our Crossing Guards and Door Keepers.

The Bottom Line More Bulletin Bloopers. I just love 'em. How many can you take in a row? The "Using Time Wisely" conference has been rescheduled to February 28-30. Our church will host a potluck dinner tonight, featuring live music. This promises to be a memorable evening for the young and the young in heat.

Jesus and the Four Gospels are well known to most Christians. In this course we will go beyond this basic understanding and explore the Jewish setting of Jesus' life and ministry, what Jesus said about himself and what his message was (no it is not about love)! We will also discuss why the New Testament came into existence and how the message of Jesus leads to his crucifixion from the perspectives of Jesus, the Jews, and the Romans. We will also discuss what Christian values are and how Christians should live their lives.
