Joyful News

FEBRUARY 11, 2018 • 6TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

MASS SCHEDULE
FEBRUARY 14
12 NOON and 7:00pm

Penitential Disciplines of Lent

"The Christian faithful, during Lent, are clearly conscious of the need to turn the mind towards those realities which really count, which require Gospel commitment and integrity of life which, through self denial of those things which are superfluous, are translated into good works and solidarity with the poor and needy" (Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy, #125).

In addition to choosing their own penitential practices, Catholics are also asked to observe the practices of fast and abstinence during the 40 days of Lent. The Lenten Fast and Abstinence Regulations are as follows:

1. Everyone 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.
2. Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 years of age is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. (The obligation of fasting ceases with the celebration of one's 59th birthday.)
3. Fasting on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday means eating only one full, meatless meal. Two other smaller, meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices, are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.
4. Catholics should not lightly excuse themselves from these prescribed minimal penitential practices.

Lenten Meal Series

Every Friday during Lent, we invite you to join us for a delicious Lenten Meal sponsored by our different groups within our parish. Stations of the Cross will follow in the Church. There is no cost for the meal.

This Wednesday, February 14, is not only St. Valentine's Day – it is also Ash Wednesday. So how can we eat chocolates, if it's Lent? Right? It doesn't seem fair. Pope Francis suggests that, this year for Lent, if we want to "give up" something, we try giving up something else rather than chocolates, sweets or alcohol. Pope Francis suggests that we try to give up our attitude of "Indifference towards others". It's unfortunately an attitude that pervades all of our society, and is only growing stronger.

In Lent, we need to hear and listen to the voices of the prophets, who cry out to us and who trouble our conscience. Whenever our inner life becomes caught up in its own interests and concerns, there is no longer room for others, no room for the poor and the marginalized, the outcasts of our society. God's voice is no longer heard, and the quiet joy of his love is no longer felt. The desire to do good fades away as the desire to do good for ourselves increases. We end up feeling incapable of feeling compassion at the outcry of the poor, weeping for the pain of others. It becomes someone else's responsibility, not our own.

If we fast from indifference, we can feast on love and mercy. Lent is a great time to learn how to love Jesus all over again. In the life and ministry of Jesus, no one is excluded. It should be likewise for us. When someone asks you this year, "What are you giving up for Lent", as may happen, just remember that you want to change your heart. This is a harder fast. The way is rough and bumpy. However, it will allow us to experience a deeper love for Jesus that can make us feel whole and free. Your answer should be, "I'm giving up indifference towards others."

May you have a blessed Lent. The parish will be helping you with many activities and even a weekly item to help keep you focused.

Fr. Ken

And Thank You

Deacon John Burke, who had been assigned to the former St. Theodore, then the Tri-parish Cluster, and for the past year and a half, to St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy, is being transferred. An opening for a deacon at his home parish of St. Anthony in Belleville, Michigan, has become available. In order to assist the pastor of St. Anthony during Lent and Holy Week, Deacon John will be leaving here at the end of February.

We thank Deacon John for his service to our parish for many years and assure him of our prayers. Deacon John will be preaching at all of the Masses on the weekend of February 24 and 25, his last weekend with us. There will be a reception for Deacon John after the 10 am Mass on Sunday, February 25. Please join us in wishing him well.

Fr. Ken

Coffee Sunday

Meet and get to know more of your parish family members in the Social Hall after 10am Mass.

THIS Sunday, February 11

IN FORMATION

Lenten Plans Tomorrow all of our FF children will assemble in the large hall and prepare for Lent. Each will receive an age-appropriate "Little Book" to use at home as part of their Lenten observance. They will also bring home a "Mission Bank" of sorts. We have yet to determine where this year's Alms will go. Prayer and Mass participation will also be promoted. Families are encouraged to attend the Simple Friday Meals and Stations of the Cross as often as possible.

Winter Break We will be OFF for Presidents' Day on Feb. 19.
God Calling.... Curious about religious priests, brothers, sisters? Ask them about their life.

The Bottom Line Some more humorous signs. On a church door: This is the gate of Heaven. Enter ye all by this door. (This door is kept locked because of the draft. Please use side entrance.) Outside a second-hand shop: We exchange anything – bicycles, washing machines, etc. Why not bring your wife along and get a wonderful bargain? Quicksand warning: Quicksand. Any person passing this point will be drowned. By order of the District Council.

Sr. Gemma Legel, OSF

I have long had a great devotion to the Stations of the Cross. The Sixth Station, Veronica Wipes the Face of Jesus, has long been one of my touch stones for Christian Service. Here is a woman who sees a convict; beaten, bloody, and openly mocked by the authority. She does not have the physical or political power to save him from his pending death. She cannot stop the pain, or his humiliation, but what she can do is show a little compassion. She wipes this man's face.

I can only imagine that if she had friends or family in that crowd, that they would have been pulling on her sleeves to hold her back. I probably would have if she was my mother or my wife. Veronica does the socially unacceptable thing, the pointless thing, and the right thing. She wipes this man's face.

Whenever I am faced with something that seems unpopular, pointless, and even socially unacceptable I try to keep Veronica in mind. My action does not have to be big, it does not have to change the world. The only important thing is it the right thing to do, the thing Christ is calling us to do.

This year, on every Friday during lent a different group from the parish will host a free meal at 6:00 in the parish hall, followed by Stations of the Cross at 7:00 p.m. Please come pray with us. It is a great place to practice being a Veronica in our world.

Forever Young Seniors...

from the beach.....

I see winter has come back to Westland this past week! I hope you are all staying warm & dry and healthy. The Church of the Ascension here in Fort Myers Beach has asked us not to shake hands or hug anyone during Mass due to the flu outbreak. Not a bad idea to help stay healthy.

I hope everyone enjoyed the Charity Bingo at last week's meeting. Thank you to Flo Bozek for the fantastic decorations and to Violet Lash, Cathy Bumgarner & Genie Jez for organizing the pizza lunch. I read in the Joyful News that the new monitors were installed in Church last week. I am looking forward to seeing them.

Our next meeting will be Monday, March 5th at 10:00am in the large Social Hall.

Please keep all of our ill members in your prayers.
