From the Pastor's Desk

Who have you invited to the Church lately? I suppose the more appropriate question should be, "Have you invited anyone to church lately?" "Who me?" you may respond, honestly and innocently. Yes. You. Have you brought anyone to church with you lately?

Most of us come to church for a variety of reasons, in addition to the obvious. We may get a sense of peace and relief; sometimes we are asking for something special, or help for a certain issue we or someone in our life is facing. We come to church because we are thankful. Praying together in community, even if we don't know all of the members of that community, strengthens our prayers that sometimes seem meager. For many, it is a tradition in our family; we come to the same mass, sit in the same seat, we go through the same ritual. It gives some direction to our life, and sets us on the path for the next week.

Bulletin Articles due by 9 am on Monday (5 days prior to publication). Submitted bulletin content is subject to approval.

Fr. Ken (continued from front page)

I'm sure you know people around you that could those things in their lives as well. Perhaps a family member or neighbor who has stopped coming to Mass, for whatever reason. Possibly someone that you work with or live close to that you know would love to get closer to God. God might be calling them, but doing so through you. Often times God works through other people. Some of the times, that "other person" is you.

This summer, let's work on this together – to bring more people to church. To approach people whose lives are poorer because God is not in them. Try to imagine what your life would be like without Christ. Let your feet and your hands and your lives bring Christ to others.

Fr. Ken

IN FORMATION

The Top Line Please don't forget that we are accepting registrations for our fall faith formation program. Please call the office to inquire. If you would like to order a missal for the new liturgical year, please fill out the form found elsewhere in the bulletin.

The Bottom Line An old nun was living in a convent next to a construction site and noticed the coarse language of the workers and decided to spend some time with them to correct their ways. She decided she would take her lunch, sit with the workers and talk with them. She put her sandwich in a brown bag and walked over to the spot where the men were eating. She walked up to the group and with a big smile said: "And do you men know Jesus Christ?" They shook their heads and looked at each other very confused. One of the workers looked up into the steelworks and yelled out, "Anybody up there know Jesus Christ?" The worker yelled back, "Cuz his wife's here with his lunch."

Sr. Gemma Legel, OSF

Congratulations and Best Wishes on Your Retirement, Sr. Gemma

You started on this journey, so many years ago, and now it's time to leave behind dear friends you've come to know.

*You sought Divine direction & a heart to do His will.
Your work became your passion, as you used your gifts & skills.*

You set the highest standards for yourself and others too showing honor, pride & dignity-they saw the best in you!

So don't waste one more minute wishing for things that might have been, rather watch the seeds you've planted grow, and feel His peace within.

We pray God keeps you safe & well, wherever you may turn, surrounded by your family and friends, living out the dreams you've earned.

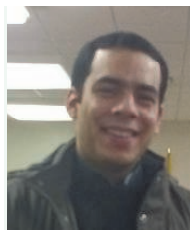

*And in the quiet of your heart, may you hear God softly say...
"My good & faithful servant, I'm so proud of you this day!"*

Best wishes from our parish family and staff

Join us as we say farewell to Sr. Gemma and wish her best wishes in her retirement

We thank Sr. Gemma for her 52 years of service to God and the People of God. Please join us for a reception

THIS Saturday, June 9 after the 4:30pm Mass and Sunday, June 10 after the 10:00am Mass

FAREWELL FR. MARCELO

Next weekend, June 16 & 17, Father Marcelo will be leaving us after four short months. He will be returning to Brazil to finish up his preparation for his mission in Japan. He will begin studying the Japanese language in September, living at the PIME Regional House just outside of Tokyo. Please wish him well and pray for him.

FATHER'S DAY Spiritual Bouquet Mass Cards

These cards are available this weekend weekend June 9/10 for a donation of $2 per name.

Members from our Youth Group will be in our Gathering Space with the Spiritual Bouquet Mass cards. You may also purchase them at our Parish Office during regular business hours through Monday, June 11th. All names of Fathers, Living or Deceased, will be printed on a special insert in our bulletin Father's Day weekend, June 17th.

Feast of St. Anthony Blessing of Bread

During our Noon Mass on Wednesday, June 13th

The popular St. Anthony of Padua is known as the patron saint of lost things and as the patron of the poor. Centuries ago, alms given for his intention were used to bake bread that was distributed to the poor. This bread became known as "St. Anthony's Bread" and the custom developed of blessing bread on his feast day which is June 13th.

The customary blessing of bread will take place during our Noon Mass. Thanks to the generosity of Olimpia DeToma, small loaves of homemade baked bread will be available in church for this blessing. After Mass, everyone present will be invited to take home one of the loaves of bread. In keeping with the tradition of assisting the poor on St. Anthony's Day, a donation for the bread is appreciated and will help feed the less fortunate in our community.

Summer is upon us. While it is not as event filled at the Parish as Christmas or Easter, it is often just as hectic in our personal lives. We have weddings, graduation parties, vacations, family reunions, and work obligations we try to cram into the few short months when we don't need snow boots. Our weekends get busy. This is no different for our loyal ministers who help as Lectors, Commentators, Altar Servers, Sacristans, Eucharistic Ministers, Homebound Ministers, Ushers and greeters each week. They need time off too.

If you have ever considered helping with one of these ministries, and will be around this summer please stop by to talk to me before or after Mass, or contact us at the office at 734-425-4421. We are always willing to work with your schedule, and your assistance will help everyone have a better summer.
