Joyful News

JULY 29, 2018 • 17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From the Pastor's Desk

This past Thursday, July 26, the church celebrated the memory of Saints Joachim and Anne, the parents of Mary. As you know, St. Anne is the patroness of the Archdiocese of Detroit. Her picture hangs in the back of our church, above the vigil candles. It is a reminder of the important role that she had in the life of Mary, who is the patroness of our parish.

In the Gospels of Matthew and Luke, we have an ancestral history of Jesus, showing us that Jesus is the culmination of great promises from the Old Testament. We know nothing about Mary's side of the family except that they existed. Even the names, Joachim and Anne, come from a legendary source written more than a century after Jesus' life. We can conclude from the Scriptures that their lives were both heroic and holy. Sometimes we need to rely on legends about Mary's childhood, or make educated guesses from the information gathered from the Bible. In Mary, we see a fulfillment of many generations of prayerful persons. Mary, too, is steeped in the religious traditions of Judaism.

Mary's strong character, whether it be in making decisions, in her practice of fervent prayer, in her devotion to the laws of her faith, her strength in times of crisis or in devotion to her family, shows that she was part of a close-knit, loving family. They looked forward to the next generation even while retaining the best of the past.

Joachim and Anne – whether these are their real names or not – represent generations of “quiet”, strong and faith-filled persons who lived out their lives waiting for the coming of the Messiah. Their names and history remain hidden, except to God.

The feast of Saints Joachim and Anne is the feast of grandparents. It reminds grandparents of their responsibility to establish traditions in their family for the generations to come. This spirit that they create will last for beyond their earthly lives. The customs that they create for their children and grandchildren, along with the spirit behind these traditions, have meaning for the future. This feast has a message for the younger generation as well. It should remind them to appreciate the experience and perspective of their grandparents. All of life's rhythms form our experience and carry us into the future.

Happy grandparents' feast! May you continue to make experiences for your families as Mary's parents did.

Fr. Ken

Greetings and Salutations,

A Summer Blessing for you to ponder.....

Take time to claim your strength; they are gifts from God.

Take time to have fun; God's way of teaching you your strengths.

Take time to grow yourself; only you can grow you.

Take time to trust yourself; God trusts you.

Take time to be self-reliant; it is better than being dependent.

Take time to share with others; they will bless you, and you will bless them.

Take time to have hope. You are a child of God.

Let's put ourselves into the hands of the Lord, and pray that God will bless us and our families during the wonderful months of summer.

May we all help make our home a place of relaxation, joy, peace, and safety.

May we be generous and considerate, not thinking only about ourselves but helping others enjoy the blessings of a summertime.

Lord God, Creator of all things, guide our steps and strengthen our hearts, during these last months of summer.

Grant us refreshment of mind and body.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. AMEN.
