From the Pastor's Desk

In the past few weeks, our Church has once again (or still?) been suffering through the pain and agony of a crisis that we all must feel in the depths of our hearts and souls. First the revelation of the actions of former Cardinal McCarrick, former member of the hierarchy of the Church in the US, and more recently, the report of the Attorney General of Pennsylvania shake us into the reality of the sinfulness of our Church. We are reminded of how the leadership of our Church has not only let us down, but allowed heinous atrocities to occur, harming thousands of young people and their families over many decades. I for one am angered, hurt and ashamed. This is the Church that I love, that we all love, and in the name of "saving" the Church these abuses were allowed to occur and to continue. Let us pray for those hurt by this abuse.

Now is a time for a conversion within our Church. Especially we leaders, the bishops and priests, must bring our hearts and our lives closer to the Lord. Pope Francis has asked us to be more devoted to prayer and penance. I ask you all to join me in praying for our Church, which is governed by imperfect humans.

Fr. Ken

Coffee Sunday

Meet and get to know more of your parish family members in the Social Hall after 10am Mass.

Sunday, September 9

If you would like to donate homemade cupcakes, cookies or other goodies for the above date, please contact:

Don & Kathy Yokley at: 734-335-6670

Greetings and Salutations,

This week I would like to ask the Parish to keep in your prayers the wonderful men and women who make up the Catechetical team for the 2018-2019 school year. We are very blessed at Saint Mary, COOJ, to have these wonderful Catechists share their knowledge of Faith with our children. If there are any "high schoolers" interested in assisting in any of our grades, please contact me for details.

Meeting for Catechists on Monday, September 17th at 6:30p.m.

Faith Formation classes resume on Monday, September 24th at 6:00p.m.

Just for laughs...Apple and Orange were searching for their friend Banana.

Apple said to Orange, "keep your eyes peeled." LOL!!!

Have a great week everyone and remember let the SONshine in!

Peace and Prayers,

Sabrina

This week we celebrate the feast days of two great saints; on Monday the 27th is St Monica, followed on Tuesday the 28th by her son St Augustine. In the present we recognize St Augustine as a Doctor of the Church because of his writings on our faith, but in his youth he was better known for his wild life. According to tradition, St Monica spent many sleepless nights praying for her son. Whether it is a child, grandchild, a sibling or even a close friend I think that is something that many of us could identify with even today. Even if at times it seems like the person will never change don't despair. God listened to St Monica, and he will listen to you. Your loved one might not become the next Bishop of Hippo, and you honestly might not even see the change in your life time, but that does not mean that your prayers do not help.

Father, I and the entire leadership team at St Mary are also praying for you and your loved ones. Sometimes because you have asked for specific prayer intentions, sometimes just because you are members of our parish family. My hope is that you are also praying for our family too. I know that both I and the larger Church can use the help.

Paul Zbytowski

Children's Liturgy of the Word is looking for more volunteers!

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) is an age-appropriate Liturgy of the Word offered for ages 4 through 2nd graders.

During this special time, the volunteer teacher leads the children through prayers, songs and readings that are simplified for children. The children learn about the same Scripture readings as the rest of the assembly.

If you would like to learn more about volunteering for Children's Liturgy of the Word, please provide your information and we will contact you:
