

St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy

March 10, 2019

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when they were over he was hungry. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread." - Lk 4:1-3

Parish Mission Statement

Bulletin Articles due by 9 am on Monday (5 days prior to publication). Submitted bulletin content is subject to approval.

Here it is already Lent, and I just finished a book that I meant to read for Advent. It is titled Salt and Light; Church, Disability, and the Blessing of Welcome for All, by Maureen Pratt. The author gives us many examples about how we as a Church, and as American are doing better than ever to make it easier for people with disabilities to participate in society. Sadly, she also gives many examples of how we could be doing more. Many of these things are not difficult; be friendly to people you don't know, giving someone a ride to Mass or parish events, giving people the benefit of the doubt when they ask for something "different," and advocating for someone who you know needs help (or better yet, encouraging them to do it themselves, and be there for support). In general, treating everyone with dignity. I try to do this, but after reading this book I have decided to double down during Lent and go out of my way to try to make sure I am doing everything I can to make sure people feel welcome at our Parish. If you are looking for a good Lenten read, I would suggest looking for a copy of this book

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Greetings and Salutations,

Today is the first Sunday of Lent. Lent is our special time of retreat. Like Jesus we fast and pray, fasting and praying remind us that God is first in our lives. What will you do this week to make your faith stronger?

Just for fun...What kind of umbrella do most people carry on a rainy day?

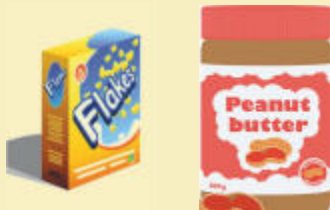

A wet one. LOL!!!

Have a great week everyone!

Lenten Blessings,
Sabrina Queen

High School Youth Ministry News

Our twelve high school youth group teens had an amazing weekend along with teens from other high school from all over the Archdiocese of Detroit. The conference was held at the Marriott Hotel at the Renaissance Center in Detroit. The teens heard from keynote speakers/musicians Val Limar Jansen and Paul J. Kim along with attending other smaller module sessions on various key topics of their choice. The teens also got to celebrate Saturday evening Mass with Archbishop Allen Vigneron.

The Theme for this year's conference was "Strengthen the Vine". As Catholic teens, God calls us to be the branches of his vine. From the moment that we are born God plants the seed of faith within us. As we grow older we are inspired by those around us to strengthen and grow in our faith. Inevitably there will be obstacles in our way. Jesus provides his love and mercy to help overcome these challenges. As branches, the stronger we become in our faith the stronger God's vine becomes. By having this firm foundation we can go in to the world and evangelize.

A special thank you to our parish family that helped provide financial scholarships so all these teens could attend this yearly conference. Thank you to all of you for your continued prayers and support for our high school teens.
