A Note from Fr. Shafique

(In Case you missed it from last week)

My Dear St. Mary Family,

Greetings from your Pastor, who you should know is a simple “bumpkin” from a very small village in Pakistan.

God’s plans often surprise. For Mary, her plans were to become a wife and mother with Joseph; God’s angel asked her to accept a different plan. For me, I had planned to stay at St Jude as pastor for as long as possible. God’s, and St Mary’s plans for me were otherwise.

Mother Mary has always been an important part of my life. I believe that her intercessions continue to lead me to live God’s will: In Urdu, we pray “Salam a Mariam”, which I first learned while held by my mother, (now deceased). Two weeks before my ordination 26 years ago I was shot, and I prayed for Mother Mary to hold and heal me so that I could be ordained with my class, which I did. My first visit to the United States in 2001, coordinated by Bishop Don Hanchon, whom I had met in Indonesia and again in Cairo, was a two month stay at Queen of Peace (Mary, Queen of Salam in Urdu!). In 2009, extremists attacked our parish church and burned many of our parishioner’s homes: 9 parishioners were killed and over 160 of our families were displaced. As a community, we met at our Parish’s grotto and prayed for Mother Mary to help us to heal. In 2011, I came to USA to continue to find healing.

Praying to St Jude and St Mary, I found a home at St Jude Parish in Detroit. Last year in my hometown in Pakistan we dedicated a new church – St Mary of Barnala. Now St Mary, as her gift to me for my 25th Jubilee, has called me to a new parish, dedicated to her honor. The name St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy translates wonderfully into URDU

سینٹ مریم ہماری خوشی کا باعث بنتی ہے

I am so honored that I was chosen to become the pastor of this beautifully named parish.

Please continue to pray for our parish, for the guidance of the Holy Spirit and Our Mother Mary. I ask that you also pray for me, your Pastor, as well.

Amen and May God Bless St Mary, Cause of Our Joy Parish.

Fr. Shafique

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

July Greetings and Salutations,

Welcome to Our New Pastor, Fr. Shafique Masih!

In Today's Gospel, we hear that Jesus sends out his disciples to spread the Good News. He gives them very specific instructions. Jesus tells them not to carry a money bag so that they will be dependent on the hospitality of strangers. The disciples are to accept what is offered and to keep going when their welcome is not extended. When they encounter peaceful people their welcome will be extended. These disciples, who are sent out with nothing, will need to rely completely on the Lord. When have you completely relied on God? Spend some time with the Lord.

Please know our 2019/2020 Registration forms are now available in the Gathering space and Parish Office. If you need further information please contact me at squeen333@gmail.com or 734-425-4421 ext. 217.

Have a great week everyone and here is a laugh for the road...

How does a bee brush its hair?

With its honeycomb of course! LOL!!!

Sunshine and smiles,
Sabrina Queen

A note from Fr. Ken

Thank you to everyone who shared kind words, notes, cards, gifts recently as I was preparing to leave. Being pastor here at St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy has indeed been a great joy for me. Thanks also to all who helped to move my things to Detroit, it was a big help. Most of all, thanks to God for all that He was able to accomplish.

Once I land somewhere and have a permanent address, I will let you know.

God Bless.
Fr. Ken

This weekend we welcome Fr. Shafique Masih as our Pastor. He is a kind and caring man, and I think we are in good hands. I am sure that everyone will extend the same warm welcome that they gave me two years ago when I became part of the Parish. Please join with me this week in praying to St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy, that she may intercede on Fr. Shafique's behalf so that he may find great joy in his time at our Parish, and that we may all grow in our faith
