Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

August Greetings and Salutations,

Faith Formation registration forms were mailed to each family. If you have yet to receive a packet, or if you are new to the Parish and have children K-8 please contact me regarding Faith Formation opportunities.

This week I would like to ask the Parish to keep in your prayers the wonderful men and women who make up the Catechetical team for the 2019-2020 school year. We are very blessed at Saint Mary, COOJ, to have these wonderful Catechists share their knowledge of Faith with our children.

Please keep in prayer that the Holy Spirit will ignite volunteer(s) to teach in grade 4 and assist with a new Kindergarten program.

If there are any "high schoolers" interested in assisting in any of our grades, please contact me for details.

Upcoming Dates to remember...

Meeting for Catechists on Monday, September 9th at 6:30p.m.

Faith Formation Classes resume on Monday, September 23rd at 6:00p.m.

Parent Meeting, September 30th at 6:00p.m. Please meet in church.

SOLES 4 SOLES

DID YOU KNOW?

In many developing countries, walking is a primary mode of transportation. Each day millions face the dangers of cuts, fungus, contaminated soil and insect bites that lead to infection, disease, amputation and death. Providing safe, sturdy shoes could help end this cycle.

Coming in September. Look for the collection boxes in the gathering space

This event was sponsored by the Holy Name Fraternity, and was coordinated by Bob Sheppard. Great job, Bob! In just 6 weeks, on September 15, the world famous HNF Pancake and French Toast returns to St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy. Mark your calendars!

St. Vincent de Paul INVITATION TO SERVE

Are you looking for ways to experience God? It can be difficult. God is a spiritual being. How do you experience a "spiritual being"? Members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society invite you to share in their ministry of experiencing God in the poor. Holy Scripture tells us: "The Word became flesh and lived among us, and we saw His glory, the glory that is His as the only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth." (The Gospel according to John, 1, 14) We see Christ in the poor and when we see Christ we experience God. Look for our Invitation to Serve in future bulletins.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

18th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The cake is frosted, the guests have arrived, and the gifts are piled high. One by one, the packages are opened, and one by one, the child reaches for another. Who among us hasn't seen a child who appears crestfallen when the gifts run out? Even the abundance isn't quite enough. Today's Gospel tackles a key question in the spiritual life - grateful or greedy?

"There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest." We all recognize the need to be practical. Raising a family, there's need to save for all sorts of things beyond normal day-to-day costs - medical bills, family vacations, private school, rainy day funds, retirement. Jesus doesn't critique the rich man for simply having an abundant harvest. It's his mentality. Does the rich man sell off the extra to make the needed repairs to the back fence or to invest in some additional livestock to grow the business? Perhaps donate some of the excess to the poor? No. "You have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!" The man wants to hoard and indulge with no concern for others.

Jesus doesn't condemn prudent saving or owning necessary items. He calls us to purify our attitudes. "Guard against all greed... one's life does not consist of possessions." We are called to be good stewards. This means being practical. It also means remaining open to God's invitation with our resources. Are we tithing to our parish? Do we give alms to the poor? Does our weekly entertainment far outstrip what we offer to others? Life is not about "stor[ing] up treasure for [our]selves." The more we grow in gratitude and generosity, the more we become "rich in what matters to God."
