NOTES FROM PAUL...

We are quickly approaching the time of year when we will shift to holiday programs, and holiday giving. While these programs are great, I don't want people to forget that we have an ongoing food and toiletry drive to St. Thomas the Apostle Food Pantry in Garden City. We have partnered with St. Thomas for many reasons, two of the biggest are that they have agreed to assist anyone in or parish boundaries since we are supporting them with donations, and the fact that they will help people with food, and toiletries so that if someone needs help, they only have to stop one place. So if you have extra non perishable food, or unopened toothpaste, soap, feminine products, deodorant, or anything else people would need to keep themselves clean, please drop it off in the shopping cart in the Gathering Space. It might not be as exciting as a toy for a kid at Christmas, but these are the donations that help keep them healthy.

Paul

In the Gospel today, Zacchaeus accepts our Lord joyfully; and the sign of his acceptance is his open house and his resolution to give half of his goods to the poor. Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you also show your acceptance of our Lord by joyfully sharing your goods with your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless, alone and frightened.

Coffee Sunday

Meet and get to know more of your parish family members in the Social Hall after the 8am and 10am Masses.

NEXT Sunday, November 10

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

November Greetings and Salutations,

Today's Gospel we hear the story of Zacchaeus (zuh-Kee-uhs). This story is shared in the preparation of First Reconciliation. It is an important story about conversion of heart. Zacchaeus was a tax collector and he was very rich. The people in his village did not like Zacchaeus. Zacchaeus heard Jesus was coming and Zacchaeus wanted to see the man Jesus. Jesus was on his way through his village. Zacchaeus was a little man and could not see Jesus because of the large crowd. Zacchaeus decided to climb the sycamore tree in order to see Jesus. When Jesus looked up he saw Zacchaeus in the tree. Jesus told Zacchaeus "to hurry and come down;" Jesus told Zacchaeus he will stay at his house. The towns people were shocked. Jesus stay with Zacchaeus the tax collector? Zacchaeus told Jesus he will give half of his possessions to the poor and asked for forgiveness for treating the towns people badly. Jesus was pleased to hear this and said to Zacchaeus "today salvation has come to this house." Reflection...Jesus asks to stay Zacchaeus' home. How does Jesus ask to stay or to be with you?

Blessings, and Just for fun... Why was the Thanksgiving soup so expensive?

It had 24 carrots. LOL!!!

Peace, Prayers, and remember...be good to one another.

Sabrina

ARCHDIOCESE AND COMMUNITY NEWS

Second Annual Parish Day of Renewal

On Saturday, November 16, we are inviting all parish volunteers, parishioners, and lay ecclesial ministers be part of the movement of Unleash the Gospel. The day will include keynote addresses from Sister Miriam James, SOLT and 4 tracks of breakout sessions. These sessions will equip parishioners to live out Unleash the Gospel in their family and in their parish. Each breakout track includes three sessions led by an expert in the field. Attendees will leave with not only knowledge in this area but ready-to-use tools to incorporate UTG into their parish or family. Each participant must register for one track, which includes three sessions.

High School Youth Ministry News

Teens have very busy lives. Balancing homework, sports practice, marching band, and part time jobs are some of the non-stop challenges that you juggle every day. We understand that. If you are currently in Grades 9 - 12 we would love to see you an upcoming meeting or event. Please join us when you can. Some teens come weekly, others come only once or twice a month. Come as your schedule allows. With that being said here are our upcoming meetings and events.

Monday, Nov. 4 - High School Youth Group Meeting - 7:15 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. - Youth Group Room in the parish center - Snack is always served - Teens are welcome to come at 6:30 p.m. to socialize or come and work on homework prior to the start of the meeting.

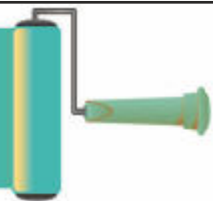

Questions? Please contact Carol Nelius, Coordinator of Youth Ministry at youthministry@stmarycooj.org or 734 765 5525 (call or text)
