Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Christmas Greetings and Salutations,

Today is the Feast of the Holy Family, of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. In today's Gospel we hear that after the birth of Jesus, the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream telling him to take the child and the mother to the land of Israel. As Joseph learned Archelaus, son of Herod, was ruling Israel, Joseph was afraid to go there. They instead went to Galilee, because Joseph was warned in a dream, the Holy family went and dwelt in a town called Nazareth; so the prophets could be fulfilled, "He shall be called a Nazorean."

We know through this reading that the Holy Family had great fidelity to God. They faithfully followed his command to flee Egypt and return after Herod had died. They went to a foreign country leaving friends, family, and livelihood behind. In Nazareth, Jesus learned about virtue, obedience, and holiness from his parents. The Holy family is an icon of family life. Life built on Faith, Fidelity and Love. What are some of your families' qualities? What do you have in common with the Holy Family? Plan a special outing with your family or a fun day/night indoors.

Have a great week everyone and I wish you all a happy and healthy 2021!!!
Just for laughs...Where do mistletoe go to become famous? "Holly"wood. Ahhhhh hahahahaha
Happy New Year! Sabrina Queen

Special Announcement regarding Faith Formation sessions for 2021. Due to ongoing pandemic concerns this is our plan for the new year; FF Families, please be advised grades 2, 6, 7, and 8 will resume to in person classes on January 4, 2021. We are keeping the home school Pflaum curriculum for grades K, 1, 3, 4, 5 and will not return these grades to in person until the Fall of 2021. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sabrina Queen - Director

NOTES FROM PAUL

Happy Feast of the Holy Family! I hope everyone had a great Christmas, no matter how you spent it this year. I also hope that you are continuing Christmas joy by continuing the celebration. As brothers and sisters in Christ, we are also part of the Holy Family. My hope for this year is that, just like our earthly families, when we have disagreements with those in our Holy Family, we can move past them. 2020 has been a year that has divided us in many ways, I hope that 2021 will be the year of forgiveness and healing.

While the obligation for the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God (January 1st) has been lifted this year, I want to remind everyone that we have a Mass on the 31st at 4:30 pm, and one on New Years Day at 10 am. Even if you can't make the Mass in person this year, I hope you take a few moments this week to pray that this new year will be one of rebuilding. Maybe if we all make a resolution to work towards Peace and Healing, God will find many willing hands to do his work.

God bless you,

Jesus, the Reason for Christmas

Jesus, that in remembering your birth this Christmas let us guide our thoughts towards the reason for this celebration.

Let us feel joy in your presence and thank the Father for such a beautiful gift.

Let us always bear in mind the reason why you came to the world. Amen.

Merry Christmas to you and your families!

Carol Nelius,
Coordinator of Youth Ministry

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Tragedy and disappointment are inevitable. What sees you through this? There will be challenges, changes, unexpected circumstances, interrupted plans, hurts, and injustices experienced by every human being at some point in their lives. We will be asked to adjust our plans, change course, and even encounter suffering and death. Where do we learn all of the lessons we need to live life well? Some of them we learn along the way but much of what we bring to life, positive and negative, comes from our early beginnings, our families. This is our early world and provides the blueprint for how we see the bigger, more inclusive world, which unfolds before us.

Our families of origin can be sources of grace, heartache or a combination of both. Families are intended to be pivotal in providing us with proper social structure and understanding, a support system, lessons about relationships and communication, and the unconditional acceptance and love we so desperately crave. They can also determine whether we have an accessible and healthy relationship with God. Many of life's challenges can literally bring us to our knees and require that we possess a strength of character that resides well beyond the superficialities of our world. At some point we will all need three coping gifts that can be given to us only by God: faith, hope, and love. Our families help us learn that we are not the ones responsible for their creation, but God!

Our experience of early family life colors all of our relationships and what we expect to achieve from life in general. Resolving conflicts, dealing with difficulty and suffering, celebrating accomplishments, prioritizing our needs, listening to God's call, understanding relationships, understanding disappointment, learning about the virtues and living a centered focused life are all lessons our families either succeed in teaching or do not. To succeed, as God has designed and ordered our world, is to discover his presence and then trust that Presence. The Holy Family can teach even the most dysfunctional family how to best use God's gifts of faith, hope, and love to find him and do his will. Their simple humble example is always before us, showing us the way. Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for us!

NEW BOOK CLUB STARTING

Our next Book Club will feature the book "Conquering Coronavirus- How Faith Can Put Your Fears To Rest" by Teresa Tomeo. We will be discussing the book for 4 weeks on Tuesdays evenings from 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. via zoom beginning January 19 and ending on February 9.

Whether the coronavirus still threatens you, your friends, and your family or has harmed someone you love, these pages will ease your fears, heal your wounds, quench your sorrow, and bring you the consolation God provides to all who seek Him in pestilential times like these — times that are, in fact, not foreign to our ancient Faith.

For in Christianity's two-thousand-year history, cruel persecutions and sudden, uncontrollable plagues like COVID-19 have time and again struck mankind, challenging Christians to rise up spiritually against evils that cannot immediately be conquered materially. Now our turn has come . . . along with the help we need to succeed. Here celebrated Catholic author and media host Teresa Tomeo has drawn forth from Scripture, the lives of the saints, and contemporary sources a healing balm for souls — believers and unbelievers alike — who have been shaken by the frightening evils thrust upon us by this coronavirus. With scores of emotional stories and practical weapons you can use to conquer this faceless enemy.

There is no charge to attend the book discussion. We are asking that you order and purchase your own book. The book is published by Sophia Institute Press. It is also available on Amazon. If you would like to register for the book discussion, please email Carol Nelius at youthministry@stmarycooj.org I will email you a zoom meeting link a few days prior to the first call in January.
