Memorial Mass

Sunday, November 7 at 11:00am

November is a time to reflect on the past year and remember our friends and family who have gone to their eternal rest. Our tradition is to have a Memorial Mass as part of this remembrance. At this Mass, all the crosses that were placed on our wall of Remembrance, will be returned to families to take home.

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Halloween Greetings and Salutations,

Tomorrow November 1st we celebrate the Solemnity (feast, earnest celebration) of All Saints. We celebrate those men and women who have followed the path of Jesus. Who is your favorite Saint and why? In today's Gospel reading we hear Jesus talk of the 2 greatest commandments. Do you remember them? I'll give you a hint you may find the 2 Great Commandments in Luke 10:27.

To all our Faith Formation students if you write down the 2 Great Commandments and are correct a special treat awaits you when we return to class on November 8th. Do not use GOOGLE for the answer. Open those bibles.

Due to All Saints Day November 1st we will not have Formation sessions. The students are encouraged to attend Mass at 7pm with their families.

What did the turkey say to the turkey hunter on Thanksgiving Day?

"Quack, Quack."

Lol!!!

Have a great week everyone!

Peace and prayers,

Sabrina Queen

NOTES FROM PAUL

In this week's Gospel (Mk 12:28b-34) Jesus gives us the two great commandments, to love God, and to love our neighbor. We often dwell on the second great commandment, probably because it seems more practical in our daily lives, but we should not let it overshadow the first. Jesus quotes Moses, (Deuteronomy, 6:5) saying we should "love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength." This is a difficult task. There are many other good things out there that we love; our families, our pets, and maybe even a good book. God wants us to love these, they probably all fall under the command to love our neighbor, but don't put them before God.

Make sure you cultivate a relationship with God through prayer and reading scripture. Let your love of God pour over into your love of your neighbor. Over the next year we hope to offer many opportunities to help our parishioners experience God and our neighbors. But don't wait for us! If you need a Bible, please speak to me, but you can pray or be a good neighbor at any time.

God bless,

Paul Zbytowski

Pastoral Associate/Evangelization and Christian Service Coordinator

PRAYER FOR AN END TO THE CORONAVIRUS CRISIS

Loving God, We come before you in our time of need. We lay before you our concerns and fears over the spread of the coronavirus. We know that you are mightier than all our fears and that the name of Jesus is the name above all other names. We ask, in the name of Jesus, that you stop the spread of the coronavirus. In your mercy, heal those who are sick and lead those who have died into your heavenly kingdom. We ask this in the mighty name of Jesus. Amen.

Saint of the Week

St. Charles Borromeo (1538 - 1584) is most known for living during the time of the Protestant Reformation and helped influence reform of the whole Church during the final years of the Council of Trent.

Although St. Charles Borromeo belonged to nobility, he greatly desired to serve the Church. In 1559, his uncle was elected Pope Pius IV. He made Charles cardinal-deacon and administrator of the Archdiocese of Milan. At the time, Charles was a simple student, but because of his intellectual qualities, he was assigned several important offices connected with the Vatican. After the death of his brother, he decided to become a priest and was ordained at age 25. Soon after he became bishop of Milan.

Quietly working behind the scenes, St. Charles Borromeo is credited with keeping the Council of Trent in session and encouraging the pope to renew the Council in 1562, after its 10-year suspension. Afterwards, he devoted his time to serving in the Archdiocese of Milan.

Among his most important actions during his life, St. Charles Borromeo established seminaries, colleges, and communities for the education of candidates for holy orders. His emphasis on Catholic learning greatly increased the preparation of men for the priesthood and benefited their congregations. He died at the age of 46.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto thee O Virgin of virgins, our Mother. To thee do we come. Before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer us. Amen.
