Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Greetings and Salutations,

Today we hear how Jesus travels to Nazareth to read from scripture and to preach in the synagogue where he grew up. He reads the scroll and, with his announcement, makes clear to all who knew him that he is not simply a carpenter's son. Sometimes as adults we return to our hometown or to those whom we have not seen in a while, and our faith has transformed us into disciples and witnesses to Christ. Do we have the ability of Christ to proclaim our identity as Christians, or are we overcome by fear and embarrassment?

Our grade 8 Confirmation students attended the Father Solanus Casey Center in Detroit last Saturday January 15th. In the next few weeks I will be sharing their thoughts from that spiritual day.

Have a great week everyone!

What dog likes to take bubble baths? A shampoodle.

What dinosaur would Harry Potter be? The Dinosorcerer

Peace and Prayers,

Sabrina Queen

If anyone would like to join the Knights to help cook and box the food they would be happy to have your help.

A toiletry drive will be held for Newburg United Methodist Hospitality Week too.

NOTES FROM PAUL

This week's first reading (Neh 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10) comes from the Book of Nehemiah. My guess is that most of us don't remember much about Ezra and Nehemiah, and it seems strange that anyone would weep over someone reading a book by the Water Gate. This book takes place after the Babylonian exile; the time when the Kingdom of Judah loses a war with Babylon, the great temple was destroyed in Jerusalem, and the majority of people marched off to Babylon.

The Judeans lose their kingdom, the right to practice their faith, and much of their culture. After 70 some years they are able to return to Jerusalem, Nehemiah (a Persian Jew) and Ezra (a Jewish scribe and priest), and work to rebuild the city and temple. The people are crying because they can again hear the Word of God proclaimed openly in His City. This would have been the first time that many of these people would have heard this part of their faith and culture. I hope we rejoice every Sunday when we are allowed to openly share the Word of God, our faith, and our culture. Feel free to proclaim it to the wider world.

God bless,

Paul Zbytowski

Pastoral Associate/Evangelization and Christian Service Coordinator

PRAYER FOR AN END TO THE CORONAVIRUS CRISIS

Loving God, We come before you in our time of need. We lay before you our concerns and fears over the spread of the coronavirus. We know that you are mightier than all our fears and that the name of Jesus is the name above all other names. We ask, in the name of Jesus, that you stop the spread of the coronavirus. In your mercy, heal those who are sick and lead those who have died into your heavenly kingdom. We ask this in the mighty name of Jesus. Amen.

Saint of the Week

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great.

His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology.

The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today.

COVID-19 Updates and Reminders for Parishes

The AOD Department of Communications shares the following reminders from the Liturgical Committee and Human Resources regarding our current COVID-19 guidelines for liturgies and parish offices.

The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages Mass-goers, regardless of vaccination status, to wear face-coverings and to practice social distancing to reduce exposure to COVID-19. The faithful are reminded that particular dispensations from the obligation to participate in Holy Mass remain in effect for people who are ill or who find themselves in other specific circumstances. More information is available at aod.org/emergencyresponse.

The Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS) issued a public health advisory reiterating its recommendation to use face masks.

Plant Your Works in the Word

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful — truly?

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God — giving it true spirit and life.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto thee O Virgin of virgins, our Mother. To thee do we come. Before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer us. Amen.
