Parish Mission Statement

The Parish of St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy, inspired by Mary's "Yes" and led by the Holy Spirit, strives to be a faith-filled community, joyfully welcoming all to witness and to celebrate the Gospel.

NOTES FROM PAUL

If Father reads the longer form of the Gospel today (Jn 21:1-19) we will hear Jesus ask Peter three times, "do you love me?" This gives Peter, the apostle who denies Jesus three times on Good Friday, three chances to publicly say that he loves Jesus. In reply Jesus says, "Feed my lambs," "Tend my sheep," then "Feed my sheep." Jesus is telling Peter that the way to show his love is to take care of his flock. He is telling us the same thing.

Next week our Faith Formation children will be making their First Communion and their Confirmations, please pray for them. Don't just pray for the "lambs" though, please pray for all of your brothers and sisters in Christ as well. If you are in the position to do something more active for our community, that is wonderful, but please don't discount the power of prayer, and don't be afraid to show Jesus that you love him by helping to tend his flock.

God Bless,
Paul Zbytowski
Pastoral Associate/Evangelization and Christian Service Coordinator

Saint of the Week

The story of St. Rose of Venerini (February 9, 1656 – May 7, 1728) is one of having faith in God and his calling in your life. Born in Italy in 1656, she was the daughter of a doctor. Following the death of her fiancé, she entered a convent in the hopes of becoming a nun, but soon returned home to care for her mother after the death of her father. In an effort to keep up her spiritual side, St. Rose invited women of the neighborhood to recite the rosary in her home, and together they formed a sodality.

Unsure of where her life was headed, she sought the spiritual guidance of a Jesuit priest. After much contemplation, she admitted to feeling called to be a teacher in the world, rather than a nun in a convent. Eventually, she moved ahead and opened a free school for girls in 1685. Eventually, she was invited to oversee the training of teachers and the administration of schools in the Diocese of Montefiascone, which then led to being called upon to organize schools in many parts of Italy, including Rome.

St. Rose died in Rome in 1728 amid a number of miracles that many credit to her. The group of women she first prayed with in her home eventually became known as the Venerini Sisters, found in the United States and working among Italian immigrants. St. Rose was beatified in 1952 and canonized in 2006.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto thee O Virgin of virgins, our Mother. To thee do we come. Before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer us. Amen.
