Parish Mission Statement

The Parish of St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy, inspired by Mary's "Yes" and led by the Holy Spirit, strives to be a faith-filled community, joyfully welcoming all to witness and to celebrate the Gospel.

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

June Greetings and Salutations,

This Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. Today's Gospel passage describes Jesus as the gracious host of a bountiful meal. The miracle of the multiplication of loaves and fishes teaches us how much God loves us. This week think about what hungers can you help feed today? How might you share your resources of time and treasure to help those in need? As we gather today and share in the body and blood of Jesus let us truly thank him for his gift that sustains us.

We would like to say Congratulations to our First Communicants who have recently celebrated at the Lords table...

Alexa and Axely Hernandez, and Natalie Zbytowski.

God Bless All!

Happy Father's Day! May the Lord protect and bless our Dads here and in heaven.

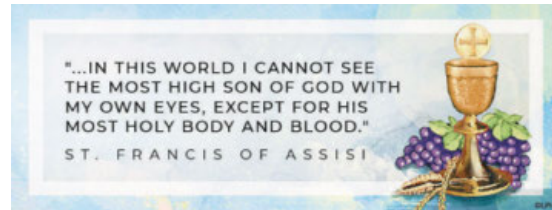

When do you go at red and stop at green?

When you're eating a watermelon.

What do sheep do on a sunny day?

They have a baa baa que! Ahahahaha!

Peace and Joy,
Sabrina Queen

NOTES FROM PAUL

This weekend we celebrate The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, or more commonly known as the Feast of Corpus Christi. This is the special day when we celebrate the Real Presence of the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ in the elements of the Eucharist.

This year it is extra special for me and my family because my daughter will be making her First Communion at the Saturday Mass. We have been preparing for this day for over a year with her, and she is very excited that her day is finally here. Honestly, we should all be that excited every time that we receive communion! The honor to receive Christ, should never get old or feel common place. Next time you receive, try to remember the child like wonder you had the first time you went to Communion.

Paul J. Zbytowski Jr.

Pastoral Associate/Evangelization and Christian Service Coordinator - St. Mary, COOJ

Director of Engagement/Director of Mission Support - Nankin Family of Parishes

Saint of the Week

Sir Thomas More was a humanist and statesman in Tudor England. He is still widely known today as the author of Utopia. More was a prolific writer and theologian. A true martyr of the Church, he was beatified by Pope Leo XIII in 1886, and canonized by Pope Pius XI on May 19, 1935. More was born in London in 1478, the son of Sir John More, a lawyer and judge. He attended Oxford where he studied Latin and Greek, as well as formal logic. He left Oxford in 1494 to train as a lawyer in London. After attaining the Bar, he spent time discerning a call to the priesthood. Though attracted to the Franciscan order More remained a lay Christian, continuing to fast, pray, and wear a hair shirt. He was married twice, the loving father of three daughters, a stepdaughter by his second marriage, and one son. More wrote many letters to his children when he was away on business and his daughters were known for their academic abilities, as they received the same education as his son, an anomaly at the time.

More rose to the Privy Council in 1514. He became the good friend and advisor to Henry VIII, and in 1521 he was knighted. In 1529 he was made Lord Chancellor of England. However, this appointment was the beginning of the end for the saint. He could not support the break with the Church in Rome when Henry failed to receive from the Pope the annulment of his first marriage to Katherine of Aragon to wed Anne Boleyn. More resigned as Lord Chancellor and continued to refuse to accept Henry as the head of the Church in England. Eventually he was imprisoned, tried, and sentenced to a traitor's death, to be hanged, drawn, and quartered. Henry commuted the sentence of his former friend to the more humane beheading. More was executed at Tower Hill, on July 6, 1535, before his death he famously proclaimed that he was "the king's good servant, but God's first."

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto thee O Virgin of virgins, our Mother. To thee do we come. Before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer us. Amen.
