Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Greetings and Salutations,

This week I would like to share a quick and easy way to remember to pray for others and our selves.

Five Finger Prayer

1 – Your thumb is nearest to you. So begin your prayer by praying for those closest to you. They are the easiest to remember. To pray for our loved ones, as C.S. Lewis once said, is a “sweet duty.”

2 – The next finger is the pointing finger. Pray for those who teach, instruct, and heal. This includes teachers, nurses, doctors, and ministers. They need support and wisdom in pointing others in the right direction. Keep them in your prayers.

3 – The next finger is the tallest finger. It reminds us of our leaders. Pray for the president and other civil servants, leaders in business and industry, and administrators. These people shape our nation and guide public opinion. They need God's guidance.

4 – The fourth finger is our ring finger. Surprising to many is the fact that this is our weakest finger as any piano teacher will testify. It should remind us to pray for those who are weak, in trouble or in pain. They need your prayers day and night. You cannot pray for them too much.

5 – And lastly comes our little finger – the smallest of all. This is where we should place ourselves in relation to God and others. As the Bible says, “The least shall be the greatest among you.” Your pinkie should remind you to pray for yourself. By the time you have prayed for the other four groups, your own needs will be put into proper perspective and you will be able to pray for yourself more effectively.

Have a great week everyone!

Where do sharks go on summer vacation? Finland.

What kind of music do killer whales like? They listen to the orca-stra!

Peace and Joy,
Sabrina Queen

NOTES FROM PAUL

In today's Gospel James and John want to "call down fire from heaven" to destroy a village because the people there would not welcome Jesus. Of course Jesus stops them. As St. Paul warns in the second reading "if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another." Stopping James and John was not just good for the village, but also good for James and John themselves.

Anger, gossip and striking out at others is not just bad for the person we lash out at, but also bad for ourselves. I think many of us, including myself, need to remember St Paul's warning, "For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself." God wants you to take care of your neighbor, and take care of yourself.

Saint of the Week

Saint Oliver Plunkett was the last Roman Catholic Martyr to die in England. He was canonized in 1975, the first new Irish saint in almost 700 years.

Oliver was born in Loughcrew, Oldcastle, County Meath in November 1625, the son of the Baron of Loughcrew. As a young man, he wanted to become a priest, but it was illegal to travel to the continent to enter seminary. Even so, he undertook the dangerous journey with four other young men and a Papal Envoy. They were pursued by English privateers, storms at sea, and robbers on land. However, Oliver entered Rome in 1647, and was admitted to the Irish College. He was an excellent student and was ordained on January 1, 1654. Oliver remained in Rome, studied law and served as chaplain at Sapienza University, ministered at Santo Spirito hospital, and cared for the poor and ill. By 1657 he was a professor of Theology and later of Apologetics or Controversies at Propaganda College.

The 1650s were a difficult time in for Catholics in Ireland, the majority of population, as Cromwell passed many penal laws against them, and the practice of Catholicism was banned. During this time Oliver was appointed by Irish bishops to be their agent in Rome. Following the Restoration of Monarchy, Pope Clement IX appointed Oliver Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of all Ireland 1669. Oliver returned to a country where the Catholic Church was in disarray and divided. He had to travel largely incognito and perform his duties in makeshift locations. He is credited with unifying the Church and in traveling across the eleven dioceses under his purview, confirming thousands, and ordaining several priests.

In 1673 persecution of Catholics was again on the rise and bishops were banned. Oliver went into hiding, but in 1679 he was arrested and charged with treason. He was hanged, drawn, and quartered at Tyburn in July 1681. Before his death he publicly forgave those responsible.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto thee O Virgin of virgins, our Mother. To thee do we come. Before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer us. Amen.
