Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Salutations!

Today, we hear the story of Mary and Martha. Mary and Martha were sisters and very close friends of Jesus. Though they were sisters they had very different personalities. Jesus loved them both. Jesus does not punish Martha's hospitality or attention to detail but her inability to be present with him in the moment. Mary's trust in Jesus' allowed her to be at peace and listen to the words Jesus spoke.

Let us not let the work and worries of our lives keep us from Jesus' words. Who are you more like Mary or Martha? Have you ever been too busy for God? Take time for prayer and pay attention at Mass.

Please know Faith Formation Registration forms for the 2022/2023 season have been mailed, you may find them on the website, and some are placed at the main church entrance and Parish Office. TY!

Have a great week everyone!

NOTES FROM PAUL

As many of you know, my mother passed a few weeks ago. My family and I have been overwhelmed with the number of people who have reached out to offer prayers and kind words. I want to thank each of you from the bottom of my heart.

This weekend's Gospel is one that always makes me think of my mother. It would not matter if it were a family or church event, she was the type of person who would help set-up, cook, serve, and then clean up. She was a Martha. Someone who wanted to make sure everything went well for everyone else. Like Martha, she would also get frustrated at times when she saw people who she felt were not pitching in to help.

We each serve God in our own way. The greatest way is to sit in conversation with God like Mary. Yet we need the Martha's to make sure the food is served at the dinner. Ideally, we each spend time in each role. I am sure my mom is enjoying her time as a "Mary" now.

God bless you

Paul J. Zbytowski Jr.

Friday: St. Bonaventure, Bishop and Doctor of the Church

Next Sunday: 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Saint of the Week

Saint Henry was born in 972 to Henry, Duke of Bavaria, Germany, and his wife Gisela of Burgundy. Saint Henry's early life was permeated with Christianity, among those who guided his education was Bishop Wolfgang of Ratisbon, who became a saint himself. In 995, Saint Henry succeeded his father as Duke of Bavaria, and in 1002, upon the death of his cousin, Otho III, he was elected emperor. In 1014, Saint Henry undertook the long journey from Germany to Rome to be crowned Holy Roman Emperor by Pope Benedict XIII.

In 1022 Saint Henry assisted Pope Benedict VIII in holding the Council of Pavia, which promoted clerical celibacy and sought to end simony (the buying and selling of ecclesiastical goods and offices). During his reign, Saint Henry used his wealth and position for the Church. He confirmed Benedict's authority over Rome, was a patron of churches and monasteries, supported the Cluniac Reforms, restored episcopal sees, and founded the Diocese of Bamberg where he built a cathedral. Saint Henry was married to Cunigunde of Luxembourg, to whom he was incredibly devoted. Although disputed by some historians, some stories of the couple's marriage report they took vows of chastity because their union was childless. Saint Henry died in July of 1024 and was canonized in 1146 by Pope Eugene III.

MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto thee O Virgin of virgins, our Mother. To thee do we come. Before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer us. Amen.
