NOTES FROM PAUL

In this week's Gospel (Lk 18:1-8) we get the parable of the widow and the judge. Jesus tells us that if we are persistent like the widow, and continue to ask for justice, God will hear us and deliver a just verdict for us just like the dishonest judge. If you have paid attention to any Catholic Media in the past month you will know that the Church has asked all it's members to Vote No on Proposal 3 this November. While I hope this happens, it is not enough.

We, as God's People, need to ask for justice for all men, women and children, the young and the old. This means better accesses to health care, rights for workers and the retired, protections for new mothers and father, safer communities for all those who live in them. Stopping Proposal 3 is a good first step, but we need to demand a world where people will want to raise their children. Where we treat each other like we truly believe that we are all brothers and sisters in Christ. If this makes me sound like a Pollyanna, I ask that you dream bigger. Dream of a world where we will all have justice.

God bless you,

Paul Zbytowski

MUSINGS FROM THE MUSED

The desire for freedom seems to be ubiquitous, even those contrarian enough to declare they don't want freedom inherently desire the freedom to make this choice. The freedom from freedom per say. So no matter where you fall, you are on the side of freedom. Therefore, what is freedom? We talk of slavery to sin, though it may seem the sin was freely chosen. Freedom is more subtle however, more fundamental than choice.

When you walk, stand, eat, speak or write, you demonstrate your freedom, your ability to act without pretense yet with effect. When you learn to walk, speak or write, you are free to move and navigate the world of human symbols. Without this understanding you are a slave to ignorance. This true freedom also pertains to judgments of morality.

With the Holy Spirit as our guide, and our faith as our foundation, we are free to live as moral beings, not bound by sin, but consciously conscientious. And when we fall, we aren't ashamed to ask for forgiveness, we are free from the suppressing guilt of sin. Even in the face of the gravest of evils, we are free. Fear, doubt, and even pain are all conquered by our trust in Jesus Christ, his peace, true liberty.

PRAYER FOR PRIESTLY VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, Lord of the Harvest, call forth vocations to the priesthood from our archdiocese and families.

Jesus, Eternal High Priest, give us men willing to sacrifice and serve. Make their hearts after your own Sacred Heart.

Holy Spirit, Everlasting Love between Father and Son, strengthen, inspire, and set men on fire with divine charity. Grant them the courage to say yes to their vocation.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Mother of priests, comfort and protect your sons as they discern their call. With Saint Joseph, may they know your love and companionship as they deepen their relationship with Jesus.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us. St. Anne, pray for us. St. John Vianney, patron saint of priests, pray for us.

MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto thee O Virgin of virgins, our Mother. To thee do we come. Before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer us. Amen.
