NOTES FROM PAUL

In this weekend's Gospel (Lk 19:1-10), Jesus tells us he has "come to seek and to save what was lost." There can be something comforting about knowing someone is looking for you.

All three of my kids love to play Hide and Seek, I think most kids do. I can also remember how wonderful it was to both look for, and be sought by my wife. We want people to look for us, to see us.

In many way's, this is what evangelization actually is, allowing God to work through us to seek the people all around us in our daily live. It might be just acknowledging someone is human; a daughter or son of the Lord.

Pray for people. Show them what it is like to be a Joyful Missionary Disciple (someone who is happy, and a follower of Christ). If you're brave enough, tell them about the Lord. If not, just seek the lost, and be good to them.

God bless you,
Paul Zbytowski

JOYFUL WOMEN

At our October JW meeting, we donated $100 to Penrickton Center for Blind Children and then voted to donate another $100 to Christian Service at our own parish.

Thanks again to all who supported our Mum Sale and Raffle. Our next JW meeting is Wed, Nov 16 when OLOM circle will be hostesses.

We were reminded to call/email our Corresponding Sec Fran Niemiec if a JW member is ill or hospitalized so she can send a card.

St. Wolfgang | October 31

Saint Wolfgang of Ratisbon (now Regensburg) was born around 934 in Swabia, Germany. The son of a wealthy family, he was tutored in the home before he studied at the Monastery of Reichenau and Wurtzburg. In 956 he elected to go to Trier with his friend, Henry, who was appointed archbishop there. Wolfgang served as a teacher in the cathedral school at Trier.

After his friend's death, he became a Benedictine monk joining a monastery in Augsburg. There he led the school which flourished under his hand and was ordained in 968. In 972 he was sent to be a missionary to the pagan Magyar tribes (Hungarian clans). The Christmas of 972 he was appointed Bishop of Regensburg, near Munich, by Emperor Otto II, the post he would hold until his death.

The new Bishop continued to wear his Benedictine habit and held to the austerities of monastic life. He preached and worked at reform and took such care of the poor he was called "the Great Almoner." The saint also tutored the future Holy Roman Emperor, St. Henry II.

Saint Wolfgang died in 994 while traveling Austria, in the town of Puppington near Linz. He was canonized in 1052.

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Greetings and Salutations,

Today we are hosting our Trunk or Treat from 2-3pm.

Reminder to All Faith Formation families we do not have class sessions on Monday, October 31st. Sessions resume November 7th.

In today's Gospel we hear about Zacchaeus. Another one of my favorite stories. Zacchaeus was so curious who Jesus was he climbed a sycamore tree to see him. At once Jesus called out to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." Zacchaeus had a conversion. What would you do if Jesus came to your home?

Have a great week everyone!

What is a ghost's favorite meal?

MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto thee O Virgin of virgins, our Mother. To thee do we come. Before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer us. Amen.
