Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Greetings and Salutations on this third Sunday of Easter,

During Mass, we pay careful attention during the Liturgy of the Eucharist so that our hearts and minds may be open to receiving Christ. Our hearts must be welcoming to the presence of Jesus.

For reflection...where else, besides Mass, do you recognize the presence of God?

I would like to recommend the series "The Chosen" seasons one and two. We watched it on PureFix streaming. If you get the chance to watch it, you will not be disappointed. The series is very good.

Have a great week for the Lord!

What do you call a rabbit barber? A hare stylist.

Why do fish live in salt water? Because pepper makes them sneeze.

Hee hee hee!

Blessings of Peace,
Sabrina Queen

NOTES FROM PAUL

This weekend we get the story of the road to Emmaus (Lk 24:13-35). I love the fact that these disciples, who knew Jesus before the crucifixion, spent the whole day with him, but didn't recognize him at the time. They were preoccupied with their lives. Their friend had just been crucified a week after he was brought into the city as a king. That had to be hard to handle.

Being overwhelmed by life events is very relatable, I am not sure if I have fully recovered from Holy Week and the Parish Mission. It is often hard to slow down and see the miracles that are right in front of us. I have been trying very hard to see the miracles in my life; my wife and children, the beauty of the work I do, and even the flowers that are starting to bloom. I hope you can take the time to look at what is happening around you today. Even when it is bad, Jesus may be walking by your side.

Paul Zbytowski,
Pastoral Associate/Evangelization and Christian Service Coordinator

Everyday Stewardship

The road to Emmaus is one of my favorite Gospel stories because it shows a Jesus that is masterful at reaching people. First, when he comes upon those walking on the road, he asks them what they are talking about and then asks them to explain. How often are we too eager to just start talking at people when we feel they need to hear what we have to say? Jesus offers an invitation for them to share first. Allowing them to share first opens them up for what Jesus will do next.

Second, Jesus takes time to interpret for them the words of the prophets. He gave them their turn and now it is his. Not only wise, but a movement of respect. After a long walk, they invite Jesus stay with them and dine. Third and finally, Jesus breaks bread with them and they are able to see that he is no ordinary traveler. He is the risen One. He could have just told them who he was, but allowing them by their experience to uncover who he was had the greater impact.

Jesus demonstrated to us in these actions how to be gracious and impactful when sharing the good news. If we are to be good stewards and fruitful disciples then we must imitate him in this regard. This Easter season let us practice the following: 1) Allow others first to share what they have to say. 2) Then be willing to take the time to explain fully or to the best of our ability our faith. And 3) help others find a way to experience firsthand the message you have shared. No one can understand love without witnessing love. In this way, your words and deeds will become a pathway to Jesus for others.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God,
you killed, using lawless men to crucify him.
But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it."
(Acts 2:23-24)

Psalm:

Lord, you will show us the path of life. (Ps 16) Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

Conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct,
handed on by your ancestors,
not with perishable things like silver or gold
but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb. (1 Pt 1:17-19)

Gospel:

And it happened that, while he was with them at table,
he took bread, said the blessing,
broke it, and gave it to them.
With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. (Lk 24:30-31)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

It wasn't until Christ spoke the words of blessing over the bread that the eyes of the disciples were opened, and they saw him for who he was — God in flesh and blood before them. The Eucharist makes real what we otherwise would fail to see.

Saint of the week

Venerable Maria Consuelo Soledad Sanjurjo Santos was a native Puerto Rican who served as Provincial Superior of the Servants of Mary, Ministers to the Sick in the Caribbean in the mid-1900's. During her 62 years of consecrated life, she greatly expanded the mission of the congregation!

Prayer

Prayer for the Intercession of Venerable Soledad Sanjurjo

Father of goodness, in Mother Soledad Sanjurjo Santos You revealed to us the treasures of grace of a "life hidden with Christ in God."

Grant us the unwavering faith that filled and transformed her life so that, like her, we may discover Your presence in our lives and dedicate ourselves in Your name to the service of our brothers and sisters, especially those most in need.

We ask You to glorify Your faithful servant and to grant us the grace we ask of you today through her intercession (here make your request) for your greater glory and the good of the Church.

Amen
