Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Greetings and Salutations on this Good Shepherd Sunday,

We hear today, that not only is Jesus our Shepherd who leads his sheep, but he is also the gate through which the sheep must pass to encounter God. Jesus wants us to be the sheep who follow him through the gate.

Self-Reflection...how can you listen more closely for Jesus' voice?

This weekend we celebrate First Holy Communion. We want to Welcome Our Beautiful Candidates to the Table of the Lord; Congratulations to Justin Campos, Savannah Remily, and Kaysen Schnapp. Keep these lovely children in your prayers. Glory to God!

This past week we completed our Faith Formation year. I would like to thank our Brilliant Catechists who give so much during the eight-month program and our Loving Pastor, Fr. Shafique. NOTES FROM PAUL

In this weekend's Gospel (Jn 10:1-10) Jesus tells us two parables about sheep. In the first, he says that the sheep will know the voice of their shepherd and trust him. In the second, Jesus tells us that he is the gate that all must use if they wish to be saved. This second parable gives many of us some anxiety about our friends and family.

If you are anything like me, there are people that I know who are wonderful people. Good in every way. Yet they don't know, or at least don't want to know Jesus. Some have even experienced legitimate trauma at the hands of our church, or other denominations. Others don't have a 'reason', they just don't have a relationship with God. I always pray that they will come to know Jesus, and try to find peace in the fact that Jesus knows them and loves them. Since he is the God of mercy, I know he wants to have a relationship with them. All we can do is pray for them, and pray that they find that "gate" when the time comes.

Paul Zbytowski,

Pastoral Associate/Evangelization and Christian Service Coordinator

Everyday Stewardship

In the past year, my wireless provider introduced something called HD Voice. Suddenly, the voice I heard on my phone was unbelievably clear and it felt at times like both the caller and I were in the same room. The best aspect of this feature is that it didn't cost the customer any additional fees and it didn't require any changes to the phone. I could say it was free, but I suspect I was already paying for it in my monthly bill anyway. At least it felt free.

The clearer the voice calling you, the easier it is to recognize who it is on the other end of the call. How clearly can you hear the voice of Jesus Christ? In John's Gospel, Jesus speaks of the gatekeeper who opens the gate and calls for his sheep. They respond because they know his voice. Others try to lure the sheep when the gatekeeper is not there, but the sheep find their voices unclear or unfamiliar.

Jesus is our gatekeeper, but unlike receiving something for free from a wireless company, to be able to hear his voice we need to pay attention and practice listening. By developing a stewardship way of life that is mindful and prayerful, we become attuned to his voice and are able to discern when the call is from our Lord and when it is from an imposter. It is great to talk about all the things we can do and all the gifts we can share, but if are not listening for his call to hear where our offerings are needed, we can end up like a lost sheep searching for the gatekeeper.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

We know the voice of our shepherd. We know he speaks a language of love, of patience, of long-suffering sacrifice. The voice of the thief will offer us freedom, but it is a freedom that ends in destruction. There is only one gate that leads to everlasting life.

Prayer for the Canonization of Venerable Norbert McAuliffe

Most Holy Trinity, you granted to Your servant Venerable Norbert McAuliffe the gifts of administration and of vision, that he should be a spiritual guide for all he met, a joyful herald of the Gospel, and a devoted servant of the one Church of Christ. For his love of everyone You put in his path, his formation of many young men, and his dedication to education and evangelism across the U.S. and Africa, we pray that he may soon be numbered among the canonized saints. Through our Lord Jesus Christ Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
