Parish Mission Statement

The Parish of St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy, inspired by Mary's "Yes" and led by the Holy Spirit, strives to be a faith-filled community, joyfully welcoming all to witness and to celebrate the Gospel.

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Pentecost Greetings and Salutations!

Today, is Pentecost, the fiftieth day after Easter. Pentecost is considered the birth of the church. Our Gospel today focuses on our love for God as we celebrate the fiery descent of the Spirit. Our love for God is revealed by keeping the commandments and Jesus' word. If we are unable to do these two things, our love for God is lacking. The Holy Spirit is always with us to show us the way.

It is good to reflect on how often we rely on the Holy Spirit to guide us. What kind of fuel do you need to keep the fire of the Spirit alive in your life? The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are; Wisdom, Understanding, Right Judgement, Fortitude, Knowledge, Piety and Wonder and Awe.

Have a great week everyone and remember...invite someone to Church.

Peace be with you,

Sabrina Queen

Just for fun...

What lights up a soccer stadium? A soccer match. Why was Cinderella so bad at soccer? She kept running from the ball!

NOTES FROM PAUL

Happy Pentecost! This is often considered the birthday of the Church, and like any birthday there are gifts! The major theme of all of the readings is that the Holy Spirit was given to the church, to guide and protect us. I don't want this to spiral into a crazy comedy routine, but the Holy Spirit also brought each of a set of gifts. Each of us have a unique God given gift (or gifts) that we are meant to use to build up the Kingdom of God. They will look different for each of us, but they are all important. If you want to give a gift this Pentecost, find a way to use those gifts for God and for his people. We need you and we appreciate you for who God made you.

God bless,

Paul Zbytowski,

Pastoral Associate/Evangelization and Christian Service Coordinator

MUSINGS FROM THE MUSED

Missing a single Sunday mass is very difficult for me, I've been playing nearly every weekend for the last 11 years and when the Sabbath rolls around I feel an urge deep inside of me to not only be present with the body of Christ but to minister through music. I prefer to vacation Monday through Friday, and reserve my weekends for the Lord and his people. Though any time away from regularly practicing the piano is likewise frustrating for me, however my family and friends are all exclusively available on these very same weeks and holidays, so to accommodate them, I find myself a few times a year away from my parish on Sunday.

This weekend I was in San Antonio visiting my Uncle and my Aunt and their families. They took me to the San Jose Mission for a Mariachi Mass. I must admit it is a little nice to only receive on Sunday, and receive I did. With 8 guitar players, employing the full spectrum of acoustic guitar builds, from the tiny Soprano Guitar to the massive hollow body acoustic Bass Guitar, accompanying a large choir of Mexican singers. There were no hymnals, and from what I could see from the pew where I sat beside them, no music whatsoever. Their ears knew the music and their hearts guided its creation. The choir sang with great strength, belting out the entire time, and while a few of the congregants knew the repertoire and were able to follow along, the majority of the community watched in reverent awe. Father gave a lengthy homily in Spanish, and I did catch a number of his faith filled words, though taking in the spirit that was upon the place was more than enough for me. Such joy and love was in the air and on the faces of all those present, it was more than invitational, it was infectious in the best way.

At the end of the mass, the Priest called upon those whose birthday or anniversaries were near to come forth and receive a blessing, however the blessing was not only bestowed by him, but by the entire music ministry as they boldly proclaimed a song of thanksgiving. It happened to be the second anniversary of my Sister and brother in-law, who were present with me, and they turned a bashful red as they were called forth and then encouraged by shouts of "Dance, Dance" to move with jubilant rhythms. My Mother was absolutely delighted by the spectacle, and it seemed like everyone present was pouring their love and blessing upon them.

The vibrant community dispersed in renewed joy, clearly leaving with more joy than they had entered with. A powerful witness indeed of a truly faith filled people. I explored the grounds of the mission afterwards, and couldn't help but feel the presence of the Lord in every stone laid by God's people. Thank you for giving me the grace to take this repose in Texas. As beautiful and refreshing it was, I am anxious to return to you! I'll see you soon.

Aiden Rickel

Director of Music Ministry

WEEKLY Prayer

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit
and began to speak in different tongues,
as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. (Acts 2:4)

Psalm:

Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the Earth. (Ps 104) Or Alleluia

Second Reading:

For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body,
Whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons,
And we were all given to drink of one Spirit.
(Cor 12:13)

Gospel:

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you.
As the Father has sent me, so I send you."
And when he had said this, he breathed on them and
said to them,
"receive the Holy Spirit." (Jn 20:21-22)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The disciples at Pentecost were given the grace to speak in the tongues of many nations. When we engage with those who do not believe, who disagree with us, are we speaking the right language?
We have to use the words they are able to understand - not just the words we want to say.

Saint of the Week

Venerable Father Patrick Peyton, C.S.C. was an Irish immigrant to the United States. A true pioneer of mass media evangelism, The Rosary Priest reached the entire world with his message of devotion to Christ reminding us that, "A family that prays together stays together."

Prayer

Prayer for the Beatification of Venerable Fr. Patrick Peyton

Dear Jesus,
Father Peyton devoted his priestly life
to strengthening the families of the world by calling them to pray together
every day, especially the rosary.
His message is as important for us now
as it was during his life on earth.
We beg you, therefore, to hasten the day of his beatification so that your faithful people everywhere will remember his message that The Family That Prays Together Stays
Together,
will imitate him in his devotion to your Mother and ours, and will be inspired by his holy life to draw ever closer to you with childlike confidence and love.
Amen.
