Notes from Fr. Sean Bonner....

Today's Gospel

Although the Gospels of Matthew and Luke are believed to borrow heavily from the Gospel of Mark, each has a particular audience. Luke was writing to the Greeks. Mark was writing to Romans. Matthew's primary audience was Jews.

It may seem odd that in today's gospel, the gospel directed to Jews, the first visitors we see to the newborn King of the Jews are foreigners. This event foreshadows the rejection of Jesus by the Jews but also makes clear, from the beginning, that the mission of Jesus is not just to the Jews but to all humanity.

The Three Epiphanies of Christ

According to the Merriam-Webster Dictionary, an epiphany is "an appearance or manifestation especially of a divine being" or "a usually sudden manifestation or perception of the essential nature or meaning of something." Today, we celebrate the feast of the Epiphany, when Christ was made known to the Magi from the East. This is the first of three events in the life of Christ that are considered "epiphanies." The second event is the baptism of Jesus in the Jordan River. The third event is the Wedding Feast at Cana.

In each of these events, the presence of God in our world is made manifest to those who are open to receive. Whether it was the three wise men who traveled from afar to greet the newborn King of the Jews or those who would go on to the Jordan River to repent from their sins in response to John the Baptist, or it was the servants at the wedding feast who followed Mary's command to "Do whatever he tells you to do," (Jn 2:5) these people saw the glory and the power of God.

An epiphany is usually a "sudden manifestation" of the truth. But we have the truth with us at all times. Our Divine Savior, "the way, the truth, and the life," (Jn 14:6) is with us. We do not have to travel long distances to encounter him. We do not have to go down to the river to encounter him. We only have to go to church to encounter him in the Eucharist.

NOTES FROM PAUL

Happy Epiphany of the Lord! Also celebrated as "Little Christmas" and "Three Kings' Day," this is a day that we remember Jesus being revealed to the world primarily through the visit of the Magi. As is our parish tradition, we have a Nativity Scene Display set up over in the Small Social Hall so that Parishioners can share their little baby Jesus with the world (or at least other Parishioners). We should also have blessed Epiphany Chalk available so people can go home and bless their homes/doors.

New this year, our Family of Parishes will hold an Advent Vespers Carol at St Thomas the Apostles at 4pm on Sunday. I hope all of you can attend. No matter what you do, make this "Little Christmas" an important one in your special way.

In a less liturgical, but just as important note. We will be running a Commitment Weekend over in the Large Hall after Masses this weekend. In addition to going over to look at the Nativity Sets, please stop by the tables and find out about the various Ministries that take place at our Parish. In this time of New Year Resolutions, please consider finding something new to do around our Parish.

God bless,
Paul Zbytowski,
Pastoral Associate,
Evangelization and Christian Service Coordinator

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

New Year Greetings and Salutations,

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. We hear the story of the 3 wise men, or Magi, who saw a star and came in search of the infant Jesus. The word, epiphany is Greek for "showing forth." When the Magi followed the star, they recognized Jesus as the long awaited Messiah and worshipped him. The wise men brought gifts to baby Jesus. What gifts would you offer to the Christ child that express something about who you are and the talents you have?

As you leave Mass today, please pick up an Epiphany House Blessing kit in the gathering area on the table by the main doors. Bless your house for the New Year!

Faith Formation class sessions resume tomorrow January 8th. Hope everyone is well rested and renewed.

Just for fun...

What kind of dog is always up for taking a bath? A shampoo-dle.

Why did the dog wear a sweater? Because he was a chili dog.

Blessings of good cheer,

Sabrina Queen

20 + C + M + B + 24

SIGNING OF THE DOOR ON EPIPHANY

A popular tradition celebrated on Epiphany is the marking with chalk inside the main doorway of a house with the following: 20+C+M+B=24. The writing on the doorway signifies:

20 = the current century
 + = Jesus' Cross
 C = the initial of the Wiseman Casper
 M = the initial of the Wiseman Melchior
 B = the initial of the Wiseman Balthazar
 24 = the current year

As a family writes these initials and numbers over the door, each member makes a promise to look for Jesus until he/she finds Him. They are challenged to look for Jesus in the lives of all people who visit their home. The family also promises all who enter may find Jesus in their home as the family practices virtues of consolation, understanding, hospitality, rest, forgiveness and love.

It is most fitting that we should bless the doors of our home every year in January. The first month of the year gets its name from the Roman God Janus whose name means "gate" or "door" and the first month is the door to the New Year. May it be a happy and truly holy one!

MUSINGS FROM THE MUSED

The Parties are over and the presents are given. The decorations have expired, the Christmas cookies remaining gone stale, and the once fresh tree dried. As another year is ignited by our expectations and our ever troubled world, its easy to lose heart in the frigid and barren midwinter. However our God makes all things new, as we marveled at his birth, the sweet innocence of life, the mingling of divinity and mortality.

Let us marvel at the new year, like the cold stillness of morning, the fresh mortal opportunity and divine gift of each day is reflected at a different scale in the new year. In this bleaker post Christmas season we are set to rely on a spiritual food and the warmth and peace our faith gives us through the grace of God. This warmth of course is Love, and how fitting for us in the north juxtaposes Valentine's Day with the Weather of February. Let this same dichotomy turn our hearts into channels of his Love, pouring into the darkness of a dawning new year.

Happy New Year

Aidan Rickel, Director of Music Ministry

We Need Your Help!

As many of you know, St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy parish lost a large amount of volunteers after COVID. We are in great need for parishioners to step up and become active participants.

This weekend, January 6-7, not only will we be showcasing the different Nativity sets in our social hall, but we will also have coffee and goodies for you and smiling representatives from the parish organizations willing to explain the different volunteer opportunities. Remember, new volunteers bring new ideas to the table.

Please come to the social hall after mass and see what we are all about!

Consider participating in the CSA

If you have not donated or pledged to this year's CSA, please do so as soon as possible. We are very close to meeting our goal. If you have donated/pledged to this year's CSA, you may want to consider adding to your donation or increasing your pledge. The CSA targets the averages of the total of our Sunday and Christmas collections. Any amount that is donated that exceeds our goal is paid back to the parish assessment free and is not factored into the calculation of the CSA target for 2024.

You may mail your completed pledge card in the pre-addressed envelope that was provided you, make your gift to our parish campaign online at givecsa.org or mail your donation to the parish office. Thank you!

Thinking of Becoming Catholic?

The OCIA/RCIA is a program of education intended to instruct in the Catholic Faith to those who are seeking to enter into full communion with the Catholic Church through Baptism and/or Confirmation and Holy Communion.

If you think you might be interested in knowing more about the Catholic Faith, please call the Parish office at 734.425.4421

St. Hilary of Poitiers, Bishop and Doctor of the Church | January 13

Born a pagan, St. Hilary (c. 315 – c. 367) studied philosophy and the meaning of life, eventually making his way through the bible. He became a convert and was appointed bishop of Poitiers in 353. Sometimes referred to as the Hammer of the Arians, St. Hilary defended the Nicene Creed against a popular heresy, Arianism. He was exiled to Phrygia for opposing Roman emperor Constantius II, who preferred the heresy which denies Christ's divinity. From Phrygia St. Hilary fought with his pen, zealously writing against the heresy.

Eventually he was allowed to return to Poitiers, but did so by a circuitous route, preaching against Arianism all the way. St. Hilary was likely the first writer of hymns in the West, his writings on the Trinity, Psalms and Gospel of Matthew survive today. St. Hilary was created Doctor of the Church, a title given to those who provided important contributions to theology and doctrine, in 1851 by Pope Pius IX.
