Notes from Fr. Sean Bonner....

In Today's Gospel

Leprosy was believed to be a highly contagious disease. Anyone with leprosy was isolated from the community. Not only were they isolated from the community, they were considered ritually unclean, so they could not enter the Temple to worship or offer sacrifice.

When the man in today's gospel says to Jesus: "If you wish, you can make me clean." (Mk 1:40) he was not just asking to be healed of leprosy. He was asking to be ritually purified, to be restored to the community.

This is why Jesus entered his creation. He came to Earth to cleanse us from our impurities, to cleanse us from sin so we can enter the temple in Heaven. This is done first through the sacrament of baptism and continued through the sacrament of reconciliation.

Turn to God for forgiveness, and he will say, "I do will it. Be made clean." (Mk 1:41)

Lenten Prayer Opportunities

During Lent is an opportunity to grow in prayer. The Archdioceses of Detroit is partnering with Hallow.com to bring two opportunities. The first is the I AM HERE Lent Challenge. By going to iamhere.org/lent, you can sign up to receive daily texts or emails beginning Ash Wednesday. This will give you the opportunity to play daily trivia and explore the Mass. There is no cost to sign up for this.

If you want to go one step further, sign up for the Lent Pray40 Challenge. You do this by signing up for the Hallow app on your phone or computer. Although Hallow is a paid application, we are offering a special promotion to grant you full access through Easter Sunday for only $1. To sign up, go to hallow.com/holyday and search for the Nankin Family of Parishes.

If you want something low-tech, join us for our annual Lenten Scripture Challenge. This year, we will read through the Gospel of Matthew and the Letter to the Romans. You can pick up a brochure in the back of the church with a daily reading guide. If you need a Bible, please contact the parish office, and we will give you one.

NOTES FROM PAUL

Next week is Lent, so instead of singing the Gloria and saying alleluia we get forty days of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving.

I have to admit, I find it hard to do all three well in any year. Sometime it is easy to step up my prayer life, sometimes I find a cause I really like to give to, and sometimes I am the king of fasting, but never in the same year.

It is probably part of the wisdom of the church, that we are given three ways to draw closer to God each Lent, and even if one is more difficult, you still have other opportunities to find growth.

Don't fall into the trap of just doing what is easy though. Sometimes leaning into something you find difficult is the best way to improve.

God bless,
Paul Zbytowski,
Pastoral Associate,
Evangelization and Christian Service Coordinator

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Greetings and Salutations,

Leprosy is a disease that often affects how a person looks. In today's Gospel we hear a man with leprosy came to Jesus in and humbly asked to be healed. Jesus touched him and chose to make him clean. We know the Lord will answer our prayers (though many times he answers in unexpected ways); it can be difficult to approach him with our needs. Ask the Lord for healing for whatever you may need and what others need.

On Wednesday February 14th is Ash Wednesday. We enter in our great retreat time as Catholics. It is our time to reflect on how we are with God, with our neighbor, and ourselves, and to make changes in our attitudes, speech, or actions. How do you need to grow in this season of Lent?

Have a great week everyone!

Happy Valentine's Day!

What did the couple say after they were struck by Cupid's arrow? "Ouch"!

Peace and Prayers,
Sabrina Queen

MUSINGS FROM THE MUSED

The Lord ever seeks to draw us closer to him and through him closer to each other, and each year, every turning of the page can not be seen as mere rotation and repetition, but escalation, a spiraling inward towards grace. Indeed the Lord makes all things new, which does not mean the same. The faith we had last year, even as we completed Holy Week at the end of Lent, is not enough for this year. No, we can be sure the Lord always has bigger plans.

So as we enter into this season of repentance, fasting, prayer, and purple, let it not be a reenactment of years past, but a headlong dive into deeper waters of faith. The Lord has been hard at work on our hearts for an entire year, surely this journey we walk will be familiar, but we have new eyes, let us keep them wide open. We can not boast in our faith, for it is not by our own doing that we know God, everything we know and believe has been revealed by grace. We may have found ourselves wandering this year, drawn by lesser, false gods of the material world. Yet our Lord chases after us, and we find we can not run from His love. We are not trapped in a stagnant cycle of sin and forgiveness. Each turn, he draws us closer than before helping us realize he was always within us.

Aidan Rickel

Director of Music Ministry

PALM BRANCHES

The Church's observance of Ash Wednesday will be celebrated on Wednesday, February 14th. The ashes we receive on this day are from the burned palm branches blessed and received last year on Palm Sunday. A box will be available in our gathering area for you to deposit your old palm branches by this Sunday, February 11th. Thank you.

Saint Vs. Blessed

Question: What is the difference between a "Saint" and a "Blessed"?

Answer: The process of proclaiming someone as a saint in the Catholic Church has evolved over the course of many centuries. In the beginning, those honored as saints were almost exclusively biblical figures or martyrs. However, after the legalization of Christianity in the fourth century, new holy women and men came to be honored as saints, and this was often done by popular acclaim or by the local bishop or abbot.

It was Pope Gregory IX (who was pope from 1227 to 1241) who officially proclaimed that only the pope had the authority to add someone to the official list (the "canon") of saints. This is the meaning of the word "canonization."

Today, the saint-making process includes several steps, including detailed studies of the person's life and a recognition that they died as a martyr or lived a life of "heroic virtue." Once someone is recognized as a martyr or if a miracle is attributed to their intercession, they will be beatified and honored as "Blessed." This means that they can be celebrated by Catholics in a particular country or region or by the members of certain religious community.

If another miracle occurs and is approved, then the "Blessed" is canonized and honored with the title "Saint," meaning that they are now officially recognized as a universal model of holiness and an intercessor.
